

Clouds Fail to Dampen Spirit of Boy Scouts

Several hundred boys at the D-A Ranch for Boy Scouts watched as clouds darken and the rains came in torrents on July 5, disappointed because a huge bonfire and court of honor was on the agenda for the evening.

Many parents and friends were planning on attending, and if ever the boys wished for fair weather it was on that day.

Thirty-six boys from Troop 1066, St. Regis parish, were among those in camp. Perfect attendance awards for the past year were received by Howard Nelson, Ben Scheive, Greg Swanson and Jim Swigart.

Twenty-three merit badges were distributed amongst Jim Busch, Bob Bush, Bob Carley, Bill Hanson, Don Desautels, Ken Kary, Phil Nelson, Brian O'Neil, Ben Scheive, and Tom Westerbeide.

The Gold Palm Eagle Award was given to Jim Busch and Don Desautels.

"Patrol of the Year" members were Ben Scheive (patrol leader), Dennis Mielock (assistant patrol leader), Chris Hoef, Ken Kary and Dennis Wiethoff.

Scout of the Year was Ben Scheive, who received not only the gold medal but also a wrist watch and trophy. Second place winner Bob Bush, received a silver medal, and third place went to Bill Hanson, who received a bronze medal.

BEFORE THE Eagle awards were presented, Ranch Director

The parents of Bob Carley, Roger Schreiber, Phil Nelson and Jim Sweeten, Eagle award winners were asked to step forward to stand along side of their sons. The medals were then handed to the fathers, who in turn gave them to the mother, who pinned the award on her son.

The son, in turn, pinned a small emblem of an eagle on his mother. Phil Nelson, 13, is one of the youngest boys to receive the Eagle award.

BEFORE TROOP 1066 broke camp on July 4 they were given several additional citations. They were cited as the best troop in camp for the week, they were the Nature award, the award for receiving the most merit badges while in camp and also for leaving the cleanest cabin.
