TIME OUT FOR N. Y. FAIR WORKERS

Republicans Cancel Ox Roast Picnic

The Oakland County Republican Party's director of special events, Arthur Saltzman of Southfield Township, announced today the cancellation of the 1964 Ox Roast.

The event, one of the largest annual gatherings of Republicans in the state, is usually held in September.

Factors affecting the decision, reached by the county executive committee, were the scheduling of the County Convention for Saturday, Sept. 12, the State Convention for Saturday, Sept. 19, and Gov. Romney's busy September calendar.

Residents Travel to Fair To Work Rather Than Visit

WORLD'S FAIR, N. Y. — For most young people summer jobs are hard to come by. That is not the case for four young enterprising Birmingham and Bloomfield Hills residents. They are combining a vacation in New York City with jobs at Ford Motor Company's exhibit at the World's Fair.

er, the job has been one big grind—literally. They walk on a 70-foot-long moveable boarding ramp on the second floor of the rotunda portion of the pavilion.

PATRICK CASSIDY, Jack Farmer, Ann Smith and Carol Mansky act as host and hostesses in the largest above-ground pavilion at the fair.

ACTING AS attendants, they assist passengers into and out of convertibles. The ride takes 12 minutes and ranges from a realistic portrayal of the dawn of civilization of the city of tomorrow.

They have been doing everything from opening car doors on Walt Disney's "Magic Skyway" ride which transports visitors through time tunnels to handing out souvenir pins to tourists from every state and many foreign nations. For Pat Cassidy and Jack Farmer,

The most asked question she encounters: "Where is the Men's or Ladies' Room."

If the brakes appear to fail while you are driving on your vacation, pump the foot brake, shift into lower gear and use your hand brake if necessary.
