MRS. SCHLEGEL

MRS. DE FLON

SCHLEGEL-GRAY

Elizabeth Ann Gray, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Gray of Overlea Lane, Bloomfield Hills, walked up the aisle of St. Hugo of the Hills Church Saturday to become the bride of Frederick Wilhelm Schlegel, son of John I. Schlegel of Detroit and Mrs. Michael Verbanic, also of Detroit.

The bride wore a Bianchi gown of antique peau de soie, designed along empire lines with a detachable cathedral train. The seed pearl motif embroidered on the bodice cascaded down the front of the skirt, and her illusion veil was secured to a pill box of beehorn rosepointe lace. Her only jewelry was a strand of oriental pearls, and she carried white carnations and orchids.

GEORGIA MISFUD of St. Clair Shores was maid of honor and bridesmaids included Mrs. Robert W. Young of Detroit and Mrs. Barry Lund of Birmingham. They were gowned identically in orchid chiffon sheaths asashed in purple velvet which extended into streamers down the back. They carried bouquets of carnations in matching colors.

Sindy Fordham of Detroit was flower girl. Best man was John F. Schlegel of Southfield and seating the guests were Robert W. Young and James Patrick O'Brian of Detroit.

IMMEDIATELY following the ceremony, a reception and luncheon were held at Devon Gables, after which the couple left on a honeymoon in northern Michigan. On their return they will make their home in Detroit.

Among out-of-town guests at the wedding were Honorary Consul (of the Philippines) and Mrs. Jesus Mattute, who flew here from Spain especially for the wedding, and Mr. and Mrs. Helmut Winkler of Elkhart, Ind., formerly of Stuttgart, Germany.

DEFLON-ULRICH

Mariann Ulrich, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Victor Ulrich of Southfield Road, Birmingham, spoke her marriage vows Saturday to Cassius Adair DeFlon, son of Dr. Eric G. DeFlon of Chadron, Neb., and the late Mrs. DeFlon.

The couple repeated their vows in Embury Methodist Church at 8 p.m., after which a reception was given in the church parlors.

THE BRIDE wore a classically-styled gown of blossom white mousseline de soie, fashioned with a bodice of Alencon lace with a square neckline and short sleeves. Her bouquet was of white roses and ivy centered by an orchid.

Joyce Voyce of Grand Rapids was maid of honor and bridesmaids included Mrs. Charles Richardson of Omaha, Neb., and Mrs. Robert Decker of Lena, Ill. They wore jonquil yellow taffeta and carried cascade bouquets of harvest moon carnations and ivy.

MARK STETSON of Minneapolis, Minn., was best man, and ushers were Alfred Feingold of Lansdale, Pa.; James Street of Wilmette, Ill.; Roger Ulrich of Birmingham, brother of the bride, and Victor Ulrich, Jr., another brother, also of Birmingham.
