Miss Lahey Weds
W. L. Butterfield

A reception at Oakland Hills Country Club followed the double ring ceremonies Saturday at Holy Name Church which united Catherine Shannon Lahey and William Leonard Butterfield. Msgr. Paddock officiated at the 1 p.m. rites, at which the bride's brother, John Lahey, served at the mass.

Parents of the newlyweds are Mr. and Mrs. John J. Lahey, 700 Ardmore Drive, Birmingham, and Mr. and Mrs. Almon F. Butterfield, 27134 Arlington Drive, Southfield.

THE BRIDE, given in marriage by her father, wore a floor-length gown of silk organza over bridal taffeta designed with emerald lines. Romboldized Alencon lace and seed pearls enhanced the neckline and formed panels on the controlled skirt and chapel train.

A miniature crown of looped pearls, accented with iridescent crystals, secured her bouffant veil in silk illusion which was also dotted with pearls. She carried a cascade bouquet of white roses, stephanotis and orchids.

Judith Mary Lahey, sister of the bride, was chosen as the maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Mary K. Springer of Birmingham, Mrs. William McNish of Detroit and Jo Marie Butterfield, sister of the groom.

10 Days at Girls' State:
Now She's Off to Europe

By ELLI BLAUMAN
MI 7-1465

After attending Girls' State at the University of Michigan for 10 days, Bonnie Brandt, daughter of the Robert J. Brandt of White Oaks Trail, left for Europe and will spend six weeks touring the continent with relatives.

Bonnie, who flew jet from Toronto a week ago Friday, arrived at Düsseldorf, Germany before her parents returned home from the Canadian airport, for when they arrived, a cable telling of her safe arrival was waiting.

With her uncle and aunt Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Huffman and cousins Mary and John, Bonnie will visit every country possible and has already taken a tour of the Mediterranean.

Both Bonnie and her cousin John will begin their senior year at Groves on their return in September, and should have much to tell of their summer travels.

A FORMER RESIDENT of Bellvue Trail arrived from Antwerp, Belgium, last week and just as casually as when she lived next door, rang Mrs. John Champagne's doorbell.

The visitor was Mrs. John Banning who is visiting her parents in Toledo with the Banning youngsters. Friends will be pleased to learn that she will be back and forth through August before returning to Europe.

MR. AND MRS. WILLIAM K. Rankin of Auburn Drive entertained Sgt. and Mrs. Charles Rankin of Denver, Colo., for one week recently. Mr. Rankin's brother was en route to Germany where he plans to retire permanently.

The "Flyers," a little league minor team managed by Mr. Rankin, won the championship this year and nine-year-old Neil did his share to help the team finish an undefeated season.

Sp/4 Rodger Melke, son of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Melke of Beverly Road, is home on a two-week leave from Fort Polk, La.

MEMBERS of the Beverly Hills Garden Club have found time in the midst of their summer vacations to schedule several meetings in preparation for an early fall garden show.

The first of these meetings was held last Thursday at the home of Mrs. H. E. Hesselberg of Amherst Drive. The women will meet again on Aug. 6 at the Redmere Road home of Mrs. Everett Humphries.

MR. AND MRS. MICHAEL Sheehan of Auburn Drive are home after a recent trip to New York where Mr. Sheehan served as usher at a wedding. Before returning, the Sheehans attended the Fair.

While they were away, baby Michael had a vacation as well. He stayed with his aunt, Mrs. Roger P. Eger in Fraser.

THE WINTER bridge group of the Beverly Hills Athletic Club met last Saturday evening at the Beverly Road home of Richard and Chris Hatch for a pot-luck

Miss Smith, Fiance
Feted Before Rites

Franklin Community Church was the setting for the marriage of Barbara Kaye Smith to Robert Keady Vogt on Saturday at 11 a.m.

Parents of the newlyweds are Mr. and Mrs. George Robert Smith, 1499 Kirkway Drive, Bloomfield Hills, and Mr. and Mrs. Rudy Vogt of Cincinnati, O.

Venetian lace trimmed the neckline and sleeves of the bride's silk linen gown. The same trim was used on her floor-length bell-shaped skirt and chapel train.

Her tulle veil was applied with point lace made by her great-grandmother, and she carried a bouquet of album lilies and stephanotis and an heirloom handkerchief also of handmade point lace.

MRS. R. K. VOGT

MRS. DONALD Miller of Normal, Ill. was matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Sue Smith of Bloomfield Hills, Sue Vogt of Cincinnati and Mrs. Anton Waeschle of Ypsilanti.

They wore light blue gowns styled with silk linen bodices and full organza skirts. A bouquet of lilies completed their ensemble.

Gerald del Grosso of Cincinnati was asked to serve as best man. Ushers were Robert Smith of Bloomfield Hills, James del Grosso of Cincinnati and David Launghorgie of Dayton.

A brunch at the Village Woman's Club followed the ceremony. The newlyweds will be at home in Cincinnati following their wedding trip to the World's Fair at New York.

of town guests at Pine Lake Country Club. The groom's family hosted the rehearsal dinner Friday evening at the Hunter's Whip.

A ROUND OF pre-nuptial parties feted the couple before their vows were spoken.

Mrs. Alexander Clark of Bloomfield Hills was hostess to a shower on July 10, while a July 16 shower was given by Mrs. Joseph Amalitano and Mrs. P. F. A. Prance of Bloomfield Hills.

A luncheon on Friday was given by the bride's family for out-

Spring Rites

Mr. and Mrs. Donald H. Ross, 6931 Lahser, Birmingham, announce the engagement of their daughter, Jo Ann, to Dennis Allan Gorman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond R. Gorman, 31851 Valen Court, Birmingham.

The bride-elect attended Western Michigan and Wayne State universities. Her fiance is attending Western Michigan and is affiliated with Sigma Alpha Epsilon. The couple plan a spring wedding.

dinner and a few hands of bridge. Attending were Larry and Helen Muma, Lorna and Jack Clemens, Hugh and Ruth McCombs, Jack and Dot Seybold, Shirley and John Laica, Mary Anne and Lee Embrey and Larry and Gerry Marchetti, who substitute for Betty and Jack Stewart.

Recently the group presented a magnetic board and playing cards to the club so that members can now play bridge at poolside without fear of having a good hand blow away.
