Notes
From Peggy

By MRS. J. F. HAMILTON
MI 6-2532

The Mud Hens, Major League baseball team, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Thompson at their home, 2400 Hampton Lane, Thursday night. Mrs. Thompson, team mom, treated the boys, their manager and their coach to a party to wind up the season. Their last game was the Federal League championship game. Friday night against the Senators.

John Hamilton, manager of the Mud Hens, presented Certificates of Achievement to twelve-year-old players retiring from the league because of age: James Everett, Robert Schreiner, Dudley Lehman, Tom Thomson, Doug Hagerman, Bob Allhouse and Bud Craig.

Younger members of the team at the party were Robert Gorges, John Petersen, Rick Scholz, Roddy Thomson, Richard Allhouse, Paul Deyo and Jack Hamilton. Coach and score keeper this season was Edgar Deyo.

Mr. and Mrs. William Smith and daughter, Cheryl, 1600 Webster, returned Sunday from a two-week vacation in Canada. They stayed at Harbour Kincaid, Toronto.

Mr. and Mrs. Dennis L. Haack, 1407 Bowers St., are in Tarrytown, N.Y., on a four-week business and pleasure trip.

Guests of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon H. Nash, 1461 Bowers St., this week end are Mrs. Steve Suminski and son, Dennis, of Erie, Pa.

MR. AND MRS. Gilbert V. Schrock, 1748 Webster, were in Escanaba recently for a Michigan Petroleum Association convention. They went on to Sault Ste. Marie for three days of sight-seeing before returning home. Jim Schrock is spending two weeks at the CVO Camp near Lexington.

Carol Miller, 1445 Bowers St., who begins her freshman year at University of Michigan Aug. 26, was in Ann Arbor July 5, 6 and 7 for an orientation session.

Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Crouch, 1745 Webster, are spending their vacation aboard their new 30-ft. ketch, "Coquette." After trying her out on Lake St. Clair this week, they will sail to Put-in-Bay, then take a trip to Fort Austin the following week.

THE LOUIS D'Amrosio family have returned from a two-week vacation in the East. After visiting relatives in New York City and seeing the World's Fair, they went to Massachusetts, stopping at Holden to see their old neighbors from Bowers St. Mr. and Mrs. Harland Oates, and visiting relatives in Gloucester.

A son, Russell Scott, was born to Lt. and Mrs. Robert L. Davis in Corpus Christi, Tex., July 8. He weighed 7 lb., 15 oz. Paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Ernest Davis, 1526 E. Lincoln, were in Corpus Christi for the event. They report that Lt. Davis got a mere glimpse of his son as he was due aboard the U.S. Aircraft Carrier, Forrestal, July 9 for a nine-month cruise in the Mediterranean.

Tip to Sightseers

"We're planning to visit New York this summer to see the World's Fair. Are ties and jackets required in most better New York restaurants?"

Yes, they are. Some restaurants keep a supply of ties and washed jackets to loan out—but don't depend on it.

Delta Zetas Keep
Calendar Humming

Delta Zeta alumnae in Oakland County are wearing happy smiles since the return of their delegates from the 28th biannual national convention of the sorority at the Netherland-Hilton Hotel in Cincinnati, O.

President Mrs. Laurence E. Trevarrow, Jr., Huntington Woods, packed her suitcases full of awards for the Oakland County alumnae chapter.

An engraved silver-handled gavel was presented for continuing excellence over a four-year period. A certificate of excellence and a crested gold pin were awarded for the philanthropic activities of the Oakland County alumnae. Mrs. Everett T. Bolen, Farmington, was philanthropy chairman of Oakland County, and she was also present at the convention to share the honor.

Beginning at 2 o'clock, the air will be thick with "Do you remember when—?", as the more than 200 recipients of invitations reminisce over punch and dessert in the garden.

Assisting Mrs. Stephenson as co-hostesses will be Mrs. Jack Tower, Pinckney; Mrs. James A. Platt, Farmington; and Mrs. Carolyne W. Rees, Royal Oak.

Members of the invitations committee are Mrs. A. Jefferson Sharp, Birmingham; Mrs. C. Richard Selden, Southfield; Mrs. Richard H. Hall and Mrs. Rhea McLeod, both of Royal Oak.

Your Society Correspondents, featured throughout this section, want news about you.

FIRST PLACE in the photo contest with a prize of $25 was won by the local Delta Zetas. The nine winning pictures will be printed in "Let's Look," a publication illustrating and explaining sorority life.

Oakland County's Press Book was also awarded a superior rating.

Other local Delta Zetas in attendance at the convention were Mrs. Russell T. Costello, Orchard Lake, who will continue her position as national PanHellenic delegate; Mrs. Winfield T. Hinman, Franklin, who served as Convention Chairman of Guards, and Miss Linda L. Richards, Rochester, president of Gamma Tau chapter at Bowling Green State University.

DELTA ZETA ALUMNAE of Albion College will be gathering from all over the state of Michigan for the third annual reunion, on Saturday, July 25, at the home of Mrs. Jerry D. Stephenson, 18555 Devonshire, Birmingham.
