

Kathleen Rowland Weds Robert Edward Coltrin

Kathleen Claire Rowland and Robert Edward Coltrin repeated their marriage vows at a 2 p.m. ceremony Saturday at the Methodist Church of New Wilmington, Pa.

Parents of the newlyweds are Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Thomas Rowland of 560 S. Cranbrook Cross, Birmingham, and Mr. and Mrs. Edward Dilly Coltrin of Euclid, O.

The bride's gown was designed of white satapeau over chiffon tulle. Swiss embroidery was applied on the controlled skirt and train. Her tiered illusion veiling was secured with a matching bowed crown applied in Swiss embroidery and seed pearls. She carried stephanotis and ivy centered with a white orchid corsage.

SERVING AS honor attendant was Mary Hines of Ellwood City, Pa. Bridesmaids were Marilyn Phillips of Granville, O., Mrs. Thomas Webb, a sister of the bridegroom, of Euclid. They wore jade green organza over satin gowns designed in an A-line style with a back floating panel. They carried stephanotis and ivy centered with yellow roses.

Wade-Lundy Vows Read In New Jersey Ceremony

Ellen Milliken Wade, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William E. Wade of Pennington, N. J., became the bride of Richard Bruce Lundy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin S. Lundy of Bloomfield Hills, on July 18 at the First Methodist Church of Pennington. A reception followed at the Princeton Inn.

The bride was attired in candlelight pure silk shantung, fashioned with a square neckline, fitted bodice, and trimmed with Alencon lace and seed pearls. The full back ended in a chapel train. A shantung pillow held her silk illusion veil and she carried a cascade of orchids, stephanotis and baby ivy.

KATHLEEN LUNDY, sister of the bridegroom, served as the maid of honor. Other attendants were Ann Bennett of Chevy Chase, Md., Alice Campbell of Sewickley, Pa., and Hannah Wing of Pennington.

They were attired in full-length pink shantung gowns with a scooped neckline, empire waist, and pannelled back. They carried bouquets of American Beauty roses and baby ivy.

The mother of the bride chose a moss green silk shantung sheath and the groom's mother wore an azure blue silk sheath. Both mothers carried corsages of gardenias.

Hills' Home Scene Of Wedding Rites

Deborah Bradford Walsh and Clarence Albert Richardson were married Saturday at her family's home in Bloomfield Hills.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Richard Walsh. Her father is the president of W. R. Walsh Sales Corp. of Bloomfield Hills. She is the granddaughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. William Alexander Bradford. Mr. Bradford was a former mayor of Quincy, Mass. The bride is a descendant of William Bradford, original governor of the Plymouth Colonies, and she is a descendant of John and Priscilla Alden.

Her bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Amos Frank Richardson and the late Mr. Richardson of Murray Hill.

THE BRIDE, who was given in marriage by her father, descended a circular staircase wearing a gown of ivory candlelight satin fashioned with an off the shoulder bodice embossed in cream lace.

MRS. C. A. RICHARDSON

The sides of the gown were inserted with cream lace and small satin bows, followed by a full cathedral train. Yards of French ivory tulle went into the cathedral length veil attached by a coronet of ivory satin. The bride carried a cascade bouquet of ivory roses and ivy.

Mrs. William Bradley Schuh was matron of honor, and Mrs. James Lee, sister of the groom, was the other attendant. The gowns were full-length silk-organza with a controlled skirt in front and a slight fullness in back.

The groom's best man. The bride's two brothers, William Walsh, and Richard Walsh, were the ushers.

Erwin Campbell was the THE MOTHER of the bride wore a turquoise blue brocaded satin ensemble embroidered in gold, consisting of a sheath dress with a matching three-quarter length cape.

Mrs. Richardson wore a soft rose pink silk dress with a corsage of deep pink roses.

The newlyweds and their parents received guests in the drawing room of the Walsh home, filled with masses of white summer flowers.

The couple will honeymoon in the East.

MRS. R. E. COLTRIN

Cynthia Larson of New Wilmington, flower girl, wore a pale yellow A-line gown and a lace carried stephanotis and ivy centered with a white orchid corsage.

The bridegroom asked Thomas Webb of Euclid to serve as best man. Ushers were James Heckleman of Huron, O., and Harwood Rowland, a sister of the bride.

A luncheon in New Wilmington followed the ceremonies.

The couple will be at home in Parma Heights, O. following their wedding trip to the Adirondack Mountains.
