Heads pony show to appear at State Fair.

Captain Topper Show To Feature Shetlands

The biggest Class AA Shetland Pony Show ever held in Michigan will be one of the features of a three-day Captain Topper Foundation presentation at the State Fair Grounds July 3-Aug. 2.

The famed Captain Topper, a Shetland stallion bought four years ago by Miss Patricia Burton of Dryden, Mich., will return from Portland, Ore., for the show.

Featured along with the $56,500 stallion will be other top Shetlands, including the 40-member Alpenrose "Showdeo" team of circus and rodeo racing.

THE FAMOUS Captain Topper will be stabled at the Bloomfield Open Hunt for the duration of the show. All proceeds from the performance will go to the newly-organized Captain Topper Foundation to benefit mentally retarded children.

A goal of the Foundation is to develop and operate the Captain Topper Village, an educational and research center for mentally retarded children to be located north of Detroit.

The first project will be to raise and donate $50,000 to the Lapeer State Home and Training School, Chapel Fund, according to owner Miss Burton.
