Alfred Greys Mark 'Fiftieth'

Little Garden Club Goes to Fairlane

Dr. and Mrs. Alfred D. Grey of 6696 E. Dartmoor Road, Birmingham, will celebrate their golden wedding anniversary Aug. 4 while on vacation at Crystal Lake, where members of the family have a summer home.

Dr. Grey, who has just finished an interim ministry at the First Congregational Church in Detroit, will mark his fiftieth year as an ordained minister in October.

A reception commemorating both milestones will be given for him and Mrs. Grey by members of the First Congregational Church, Detroit, in September.

Members of the Little Garden Club gathered at the Kenneth C. home of Mrs. Milton Schimpke for their July meeting. The group went to Dearborn for a conducted tour of the Fairlane rose gardens at the former home of the late Mr. and Mrs. Henry Ford.

Mrs. Dale Douglass of Hillwood Road and Mrs. Russell Robins of W. Maple Road arranged for the tour and luncheon at the famous estate.

Society Dept. deadline for all organizational news, wedding and engagements announcement is 5 p.m. on the Friday preceding Thursday publication.

Sometimes it is the little things that are all important and bring about unusual happenings.

NORM MEETS THE CAPTAIN

Scott is the son of Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Hastings of Malibu Drive. Also accompanying their parents on the cruise were Dan Hastings, 17, daughter Leslie, 9 and Francois Deriouz, 18. Francois is the exchange student from Grenoble, France, who has spent the past school year with the Hastings family. Since returning from the cruise he has bid good-bye to his American family and departed for home July 21.

After the two families became acquainted they enjoyed many experiences touring the various parts of St. Thomas, Martinique, Barbados, Trinidad and San Juan. Many an hour was spent sight-seeing and shopping in the various ports. Norm surprised his father with his ability to converse with the natives in French.

This recently completed cruise to the West Indies is the third time the Hastings have travelled with Captain Nantaro aboard the Italian ship, Victoria.

THE BEAUTIFUL GARDENS of the Charles Buhler home on Cedar Bend Drive was the setting July 18 for the husband and wife get-together of Bloomfield Heights Branch, WNFCA.

Some 60 guests dined at the two banquet tables in the form of a U, covered with fish net and decorated with palm leaves, lights, hau pineapples and other native fruits. They sat, Hawaiian style, on the ground and ate the Hawaiian dishes while enjoying music from the islanders.

General chairman of the event was Mrs. R. A. Latimer of Cedar Bend Drive. Mrs. George Morton and her committee of Mrs. G. Scheizer and Mrs. H. J. Hood handled the decorations. Mrs. F. B. Ellber was assisted by Mrs. Colton Hutchins and Mrs. Frederick Lanz on the food committee. Mrs. Charles Buhler and Mrs. Spencer Hinds, who have both vacationed on the island, gave assistance to make the luau as authentic as possible.

MR. AND MRS. RODNEY G. BROWN recently returned to their Burning Tree Drive home after attending the wedding of their oldest son, Garrett. Accompanying their parents were Margaret and Sheldon.

Garrett claimed Sandra Lynn Keil as his bride June 27 at Devon, Pa. Sandra is the daughter of Mrs. F. John Robertson of Newtown Square and Otto Keil of Philadelphia. The Rev. John W. Robertson, uncle of the bride, from Huntsville, Ala., officiated at the 11 a.m. ceremony, which took place in the Baptist Church of the Great Valley, Devon, Pa.

Sherry Keil, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. Sally and Robin Robertson, sisters of the bride, were bridesmaid and flower girl, respectively.

J. Hunter Gaul was best man. The ushers included John H. Lowell and John Flynn.

Coens Back Home

Mr. and Mrs. Harry B. Coen of 1269 Willow Lane, Birmingham, have returned from a month's stay at the Tadoussac Hotel, Tadoussac, Que.

Third Session Under Way At Cavell

The YWCA's Camp Cavell on Lake Huron was again filled to capacity when 160 girls arrived Saturday to attend the camp's third summer session.

On hand to greet them were 30 girls who attended the second session and are remaining for the third.

Less than 10 vacancies are available for the fourth and final camping period, August 8-21, according to Mrs. Frances Cusick, camp director.

Reservations for the fourth session may be made at the Camp Cavell office, Downtown Branch YWCA, 2230 Witherell St.

AMONG THE girls arriving for the third session are Carol Jean Agnew, 874 Hinton Road, Bloomfield Hills; Mary Jane Connelly, 5367 Van Ness Ct., Bloomfield Hills; Sue Easterwood, 1381 Cedar Bend Drive, Bloomfield Hills; Cyndi Tappero, 3808 Quanton Road, Bloomfield Hills; Noel Thielman, 4975 Rands Road, Bloomfield Hills; Linda Schweitzer, 4350 Rindon Ct., Bloomfield Hills; Sue Smith, 1490 Kirway Drive, Bloomfield Hills.

From Birmingham will be Lynn Ann and Marla Brasalia, 2202 Derby Road; Arno Chave, 5705 Forman Drive; April and Wendy Kornmiller, 7135 N. Tratham; Debby MacPherson, 6681 Woodbank Drive; Janice MacPherson, 6681 Woodbank Drive; Sandy Mitchell, 3621 Berkshire; Lore Moran, 6335 Cedarbrook; Gail Mueller, 415 Merrill; Robin Nelson, 1629 Graefield Road; Valerie Noon, 1606 Stanley Blvd.; Laurie Paul, 4837 Kew Ct.; Nancy Underwood, 698 Mohagan; Mardi Finegan, 783 Abbey Road; Jan and Kit Riedl, 968 Madison; Lucy Sherer, 2770 Walnut Lake Road and Sue Dickson, 7908 Mohansee.

A. T. HASTINGS FAMILY: DAN (FROM LEFT), HIS PARENTS; SCOTT, FRANCOIS DERIOUZ AND LESLIE

Following the ceremony a reception was held at Pondgate Farm, home of the bride's mother. The bride was educated at the Charles E. Ellis School for Girls, Newton Square, the University of Pennsylvania and Immaculate College.

The bridegroom attended the Haverford Schools and Tufts University.

After a trip to Canada, the couple will reside near Media.

DR. AND MRS. M. COLTON HUTCHINS of Pine Tree trail entertained at cocktails and dinner last Friday evening preceding "A Midsummer Night's Dream" at the Art Institute.

Among those joining the Hutchins were Mr. and Mrs. George Morton, Mrs. Thoburn Wayant and Dr. Henry Vandenberg.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray R. Rice of Blanford Road, Glencoe Estates, have had Mrs. Rice's sister and husband and two children as their recent houseguests. Mr. and Mrs. Donald Morgan, with Kimberly and David, spent the past four and one half years in Formosa. Mr. Morgan is with the Central Intelligence Agency. After a week's visit with the Rice family, the Morgans left to make their new home in Washington.

Back in their Van Ness Drive home are the Jim Lengens after a two-week visit with Mr. Lengen's mother, Mrs. F. M. Lengen of Connecticut. Also making the trip were the Lengen children, Margaret, Jimmy, Teri, Michael, Patricia and Paul. The family spent a few days in New York but the heat kept them away from the Fair.

Barbara Virginia Grovogel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Grovogel of Northberton Drive, Bloomfield Hills, will become the bride of Terrance Wagner of Sturgin Bay, Wis., on Aug. 8.

On July 10 Barbara flew to Sturgin Bay to settle the new apartment and to attend a dance given in her honor by Mr. and Mrs. Erwin Franda. Mr. and Mrs. Franda are brother-in-law and sister of the bridegroom.

Mrs. LeRoy Peterson, the former Bonnie Grovogel, will arrive shortly from her home in Colorado Springs to attend her sister's wedding.

Sondra Black Is Married

At an open house given recently for over 100 guests, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Kerr Black of Mt. Lebanon, Pa., formerly of Beverly Hills, announced the marriage of their daughter, Sondra, to William Kayser.

The couple was married June 13 in Winchester, Va., attended by Nancy Rhoades and David Warner.

The bride is a graduate of Seneca High School and attended Ohio University. Her husband is a senior at the University of Pittsburgh and is an Air National Guard pilot.

Among guests at the open house were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Black of Bloomfield Hills, uncle and aunt of the bride.

Rebekah Lodge

Pride of Oakland Rebekah Lodge No. 445 will hold a picnic Aug. 2 in Springdale Park. Pot luck dinner will be served at noon.
