

Vote Drive Is Theme of Class Reunion

The Class of '61 at Seaholm High School have set a class reunion and voter registration party next Saturday from 2 to 5 p.m. at the home of Wendy Padison, 3100 Broadway.

"This is more than just a reunion, it's an opportunity for each of the 600 in our class to also register for the 1964 elections and make their first vote count," said former Class President Mosby Harvey, 1759 Graefield.

A ten-member committee has been writing and telephoning each member of the class and their husband or wife, informing them about the opportunity to register at the reunion.

CITY CLERK representatives will be on hand to register graduates right at the reunion.

Serving on the committee are Becky Black, 2800 Pine Hill Drive; Scott Cameron, 510 Riveroak; Bill Collins, 1760 Redwood; Mike Emery, 311 Southlawn; Joan Guarniere, 6945 W. Dartmouth; Steve Jacobson, 1091 Bates; Sue Smith, 29680 Carol; Carol Ann Suyden, 6830 Mart Court; and Nancy Thalacker, 270 Lowell Court.

Everything Wrong; Good Time, Anyway

Mr. Leonard Bassin of Cathedral Drive could only say "simply fabulous" when describing the barbecue party cohosted by Mr. and Mrs. Seymour Josse and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Brode which was held in the Josse home on Kingswood Drive July 11.

Mr. and Mrs. Bassin were one of 40 couples who attended the party which incidentally was also somewhat of a birthday celebration for Mr. Josse. The evening, which was planned as a lawn party was hampered from the very beginning by a heavy down-pour.

All the tables which had been artfully decorated with red and white checked cloths and other motif to carry out the color scheme had to be carried inside by the guests.

WHILE THEY WERE saving a delicious punch, an original recipe, Jamaica called "Fog-bingers," the phone rang and the orchestra that had been engaged for the evening called to say the transmission had fallen out of their car on the expressway, and they would be an hour late.

In spite of several setbacks, the guests all had a marvelous time having fun with all the trimmings.

TIME IS FLYING, and so was Mrs. Thomas Angewicz when she left July 17, destination being Long Beach, Calif., where she was the matron of honor at the wedding of her brother, W. Robert Mason III when he took Donna Jean Henshaw as his bride on Saturday.

Robert's brother James, who resides in California, was the best man. Mr. and Mrs. Wilber R. Mason, Jr., the groom's parents, flew to the West coast for the wedding and were hosts at the rehearsal dinner for the bridal party.

HOUSE GUEST at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Hoef of Parkhurst has been Mrs. Hoef's cousin, Mrs. James Carver, from Cleveland. She hasn't been the only house guest they have had although the other one is there for what seems to be an indefinite stay.

The Hoef's son Chris found a raccoon whose mother had either been killed or had deserted him, so Chris brought the baby raccoon home. They have tabbed him with the name Teddy and have become quite aware that he is now a member of the family.

ALTHOUGH RACCOON'S taste buds usually run to fish products, Teddy demands similar and graham crackers, the same foods that the youngest member of the Hoef family, Dawn, enjoys. Mrs. Hoef says he seems to have been house broken from the moment they adopted him.

The only member of the Hoef family not thoroughly taken up with the new pet is Rebel, their dalmatian, who will tolerate the raccoon but usually backs away from him.

MRS. J. D. IVANOFF of Old Mill Road and her two sons, James and Richard, left by train June 28 for Tucson, Ariz., where James enrolled for summer classes at the Arizona Ranch School.

Richard and his mother went on to Los Angeles where they visited Disneyland before going on to San Francisco for a few days. The ruggedness of the West quite impressed young Richard, and he hopes to make a return trip there in the spring of next year. Before arriving home July 5, Mrs. Ivanoff and her son spent two days in Chicago.

IF EVER THERE was a busy bride-elect, Patricia Lynn Heatherson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Heatherson of Lincoln Drive, is certainly a prime example. Mrs. Howard Keating of Darcy Road hosted a luncheon and personal shower in honor of the bride June 25.

Mrs. James King of Chewton Road opened her home to the bride and her friends when she gave a linen shower and luncheon July 2.

Saturday, July 11, Mrs. Arthur Greiner's home on Wedgewood was the scene for a miscellaneous shower at which members of the family were the guests.

THE TOLEDO HOME of the groom, Joseph Wenzler, was to be visited for a shower which took place in the form of a luncheon and kitchen shower. A luncheon and shower was held at Kingsley Inn and cohosted by Mrs. Gerald Fitzgerald of Lathrup and Mrs. Arthur Schunann of Grosse Pointe.

Summer vacations head the news.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Fetty and their four children of Idlewyle Road enjoyed a 10-day stay in the East. Indian Lake in the Adirondack Mountains was home base but they spent a day at Fort Ticonderoga.

On the way back to Michigan they visited the Steuben glass works in Corning, N.Y.

MR. AND MRS. LORENZ Ahlgrim of Blackburn Drive have returned from a week's visit in Akron, O., with their son-in-law and daughter, Dr. and Mrs. E. Sidney Rhind.

The Rhinds moved recently from Ann Arbor to Akron where Dr. Rhind is serving his internship in City Hospital.

ALSO BACK from the Buckeye State are Kim, Kurt and Kit Keller of Woodwind Drive who, with their mother, Mrs. Jack Keller, spent two weeks with Grandfather Everett Gettles in Wellston.

Sally Pierson, daughter of the Robert Piersons of Middleton Drive, is home again after her annual visit with her Glendinning relatives in Park Hill, Ont.

RETURNING CAMPERS include Susan Maunders, daughter of the James Maunders of Idlewyle Road, who spent two weeks at Camp Michi-Lu-Ca in Fairview, Mich.

John Drake, son of the William Drakes of Raven Road, will come home Saturday from Camp Ohyesa in Holly.

PAT NIBBELINK, daughter of the W. Fred Nibelinks of Shore Hill Road, is enjoying a vacation at Cottonwood Farm in Dexter, Mich., where the emphasis is on horses and horseback riding.

Recent house guests of the Tuesday a buffet supper and shower was held in the home of Mrs. John Conroy of Berkeley and cohosted by Mrs. Thomas Feeley of Birmingham. The parties will still be in full swing when Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Kroha of Detroit and their daughter Caroline Kroha will host a cocktail and buffet supper honoring the bridal couple Aug. 2.

Then on Aug. 6, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Wenzler, parents of the groom, will open their home in Toledo and give a cocktail party and dinner to allow the families to become better acquainted.

At the moment, the finale of the entertainment will be when Mr. and Mrs. Harold Meloché of Lincoln Drive give a dinner party in their home for all the members of the bridal party.

THERE'S NOTHING more miserable on a camping trip than to have, and this is putting it mildly, inclement weather. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Weir of Bradford Drive had hoped to give their family a vacation the children would remember, but they had in mind a wonderful memory rather than an unenjoyable time.

The Weirs headed for Silver Lake the week of July 5 accompanied by Mary Prer, a friend of one of their children, but came home earlier than had been planned.

Nibelinks were a niece and her husband, the Gary Scotts of Topeka, Kan. The Scotts were en route to Indianapolis where he will attend adjutant general school at Fort Benjamin Harrison.

This was his first visit to Michigan so he and Mrs. Scott were taken on a sightseeing round of Cranbrook, Northland, Grosse Pointe and Windsor by the Nibelinks.

MR. AND MRS. FLOYD F. Vine of West Maple Road also had guests from out of town. Her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. John B. Burnell; her mother, Mrs. Pauline Melms; and the Burnells' six-year-old son, all of Rochester, N.Y.; stayed with the Vines for a few days before leaving for Melbourne, Australia, where a business assignment awaits Burnell.

Before they moved to New York, the Burnells lived on Sherwood Road.

MR. AND MRS. R. R. Lowrance have returned to their home in San Angelo, Tex., after a week's visit with their son's family, the Byron Lowrances of Idlewyle Road.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Houck of Middleton Drive entertained the Hill Robinsons, Pat Kanes and Donald Battys aboard their cruiser, "The Wild One" on Lake St. Clair Friday evening.

MRS. FRED PRINCE of Walnut Lake Road, as president, heads up the new slate of officers of the Episcopal Churchwomen of the Church of the Advent.

Mrs. H. F. O'Malley, Jr., is first vice president; Mrs. Prescott Jordan, second vice president; Mrs. Robert Jack, recording secretary; Mrs. Thomas Mooney, corresponding secretary; and Mrs. Fred Flatman, treasurer.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Sturtevant, of Swanton, O., announce the approaching marriage of their daughter, Carole Lynn, a teacher in the Public School System of Birmingham, to James E. Jordan. The wedding will take place on Aug. 15 in the United Christian Fellowship Chapel on campus at Bowling Green State University. The couple will make their home in Farmington, Mich. The bride-elect is a graduate of Bowling Green and her fiancé, of Ohio State. He is getting his master's at U. of M.
