

Farewell Parties Fill Local Calendar

BY ELEANOR NELSEN
MI 7-9056

A round of parties given for Mr. and Mrs. Robert Davison of Meadow Lake came to an end July 17 when the Davisons left with their two children, Bob and Deborah, bound for the East coast where they would board the SS Rotterdam and then spend five months touring Europe.

On July 1, Mrs. Stewart Wilson of Valley Springs Drive hosted a luncheon for Mrs. Davison at the Forest Lake Country Club. On July 4 the Frank Wickhams of Meadow Lake gave a patio farewell party for the Davisons.

When the Davisons left, however, they drove a station wagon East which they were having shipped overseas to enable them to tour Europe in ease.

THEIR FIRST STOP was to be the British Isles where they were renting an apartment for a month. While there they would renew acquaintances with a member of the clergy, Pastor Porter Ralph Surka.

Next on their itinerary is to be the Netherlands, Belgium and Denmark. Then on to Germany and Switzerland where in Geneva they would visit Mr. and Mrs. Frank Balines and Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Organ, former neighbors.

In Naples, Italy, they also plan to visit with former friends, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Eddys. Next it will be on to Spain before returning home Dec. 22 after having been on board the Constitution.

They've told their Meadow Lake neighbors they'll be back in time to attend the Christmas cocktail parties.

MR. AND MRS. Harold Hillier of S. Cranbrook Cross Road hosted a "coffee and get acquainted" party in their home July 6.

Guest of honor was Denton

Hassell who is a candidate for the Republican nomination for state representative in Legislative District 5. Neighbors and friends of the Hilliers made up the guest list.

ON JULY 9 a luncheon and farewell party was given at Topinka's Country House to say goodbye to Mrs. Richard VonKaenel who is leaving this area on a move to Toronto, Canada, with her family.

Her husband, who is with Ford International, has been transferred to the Canadian city. Women attending the luncheon were Mrs. Kenneth Busha, Mrs. William Boersma, Mrs. William Keogh, Mrs. Dunn Allistar and Mrs. Robert Figsted.

The ladies all surprised Mrs. VonKaenel with remembrance gifts of lovely handkerchiefs.

MR. AND MRS. Robert Watrick of Valley Springs Drive, who are the residents, were invited to meet their neighbors when the Frank Wickhams and the Stewart Wilsons cohosted a "hello neighbor" party in their honor July 11. The Watricks are now living in the home formerly owned by the Ted Grays.

All artists in the parish are invited to submit their paintings, sculpture and art objects. Further information may be obtained by contacting Mrs. Sidney McKenna, 6386 Thorncroft Drive.

THE TELEPHONE committees who have been working like leavers rounding up bridge and other card-playing people announced they have about finished their assignments for the St. Regis tournaments. An interest has been shown in duplicate bridge.

For those wishing additional information regarding this, contact Mrs. Dominic Januzzi, 2920 Farmingdale Drive. Pinchole will evidently have a greater play this year, and an interest is being shown in "500" and canasta.

A desire for bridge lessons has been expressed quite a number of times for all classes of players. If you have not as yet been contacted and wish to participate contact Mrs. John Fick, 31510 Bentine Trail.

MRS. WALTER Seipp of S. Cranbrook Cross Road was the guest of honor at a luncheon held July 14 at Greenfield's. The Seips will be moving to Davenport, Ia., soon, and the ladies in the area wished to say goodbye in a group to Mrs. Seipp.

Those attending the luncheon were Mrs. Jack Koernke, Mrs. William Brack, Mrs. Glenn Smith, Mrs. Robert Mallock, Mrs. Philip Weiss and Mrs. Leon Spinner. A token gift of jewelry was presented to Mrs. Seipp.

JULY 3 found the Fred Chappans of Pickering Road home again after a three-week camping trip which took them to the West coast. Their children Laurie and Freddy, their sister Linda Neideman and their pet, a St. Bernard named Gina, helped to fill up the station wagon.

The highlights of their trip were visiting Mt. Rushmore, Yellowstone Park, Bryce Canyon, Grand Canyon, swimming in the Great Salt Lake and returning by way of Mt. Estes in Colorado. They covered over 5,700 miles.

When traveling through Illinois, they stopped in Glenview to say hello to Mr. and Mrs. Leo Koester, former neighbors from this area.

FIFTEEN WOMEN gathered at the home of Mr. William Sufko on Kingswood June 16 to welcome Mrs. Emily Brown who has returned after spending five years in England.

June 13 was the night when all the residents from Pickering down to the creek were invited to attend a cocktail party held at the James Cotter home on Pickering.

Purpose of the party was to say farewells to the Leo Koester's who have now moved to Glenview, Ill.

Former Residents Feted by Localities

A flurry of parties was given in honor of former residents, Mr. and Mrs. John B. Burnell, who were in town for five days while en route to their new home in Australia.

The Burnells lived on Sherwood Road, Birmingham, from 1953 until 1957 when they were transferred to Rochester, N. Y. A new business assignment is now taking them to Melbourne.

While Mr. Burnell stayed at the Harlan House in Detroit, to be handy for business conferences at General Motors, Mrs. Burnell, son John, and her mother, Mrs. Pauline Melms, who is accompanying the Burnells to Australia, stayed with Mrs. Burnell's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd F. Vine of W. Maple Road, Birmingham.

HOSTS FROM Birmingham who entertained the Burnells during their stay were Mr. and Mrs. Harold E. Stahl of Broughton Drive, and Mr. and Mrs. Norman J. Ellis of Lahser Road.

Others were Mr. and Mrs. James Hughes of Van Ness Drive, Bloomfield Hills; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Papenuth of Orchard Lake, and Mrs. Robert Uter of Plymouth.

Mrs. Melms was also entertained by former Detroit neighbors who now live in Timberlake Drive, Bloomfield Hills, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas E. Sheehan.

After a week's vacation at Waikiki, the Burnells and Mrs. Melms arrived in Melbourne July 19.

B'field Country Day Director Hosts Parties

Bloomfield Country Day School for Girls' headmistress, Miss Marjorie Sallie, was hostess to a personal shower and luncheon for bride-elect Nancy Bricker, alumnus of the school.

Attending the luncheon were classmates of the class of 1961, which included Mary Elliot, Beth Burton, Karen VanderKloot, Mrs. Daniel Davis, Mrs. Robert Smith and Mrs. John Wheaton.

Miss Sallie was also hostess to a faculty dinner party last Saturday evening. Special guest was Mrs. Fern Lacey of Walla Walla, Wash.
