Wood Creek Residents Ready for Annual Picnic

By MARION CASKEY
MA 6-4860

Resplendent in grass skirts, muumuu and lava lava, Wood Creekers will gather around the Frank Jensen's pool Saturday for their annual picnic. The event always has a theme and the entertainment committee has chosen a Hawaiian luau this year.

Prizes will be awarded for costumes and wacky contests. They are expected to have a dance and dunked all afternoon, a Cantonese style dinner will be served.

FRANKLIN VILLAGE Players will also be dunking Saturday afternoon and evening at their annual pool party at the Dick Probas.

Some urgent business demands a brief meeting but, rest assured, most of the time will be spent eating and acting. This organization of extroverts is forever playing to an audience, whether on stage or not.

MRS. HARLOW BATES of 13 Mile Road expected a neat surprise for daughter Betsy last week.

Unannounced, she and two of Betsy's friends, Ann Doty and Sue Jones, showed up at Interlochen to visit Betsy and see the Lutz-Baines Johnson-Van Cillbran performance.

THE GORDON McALPINES of Ramsey Road have been coast to coast this summer. No sooner had they returned from the New York's World's Fair when business offered the opportunity for a California trip. Changing suitcase loads, they headed out Route 66 and soon were ogling movie stars and doing Disneyland.

Next they moved on to San Francisco with the convention. Then they turned east to Lake Tahoe, Las Vegas, the Grand Canyon and home, just in time to pack daughter Nancy off to Camp Narrin. She'll be there for two weeks with three other Franklin 10-year-olds, Pam, Kerr, Kim Goby and Jody Stone.

THE GARLATHES of Haverford decided summer '64 was the time to show their teen-agers the West, too, and they did it by land, sea and air.

one's home, then motored up the coast. At Seattle they ferried to Victoria and there got on a train to the Canadian Rockies and the breath-taking scenery of Banff and Lake Louise.

A CAMPING BUS was all rented and ready to take the Grant Sivier family on an extended camping vacation but business upset their plans. So they took it to Port Huron for the weekend, camped at Lakesport and enjoyed a close at hand view of the Port Huron to Mackinac sailors taking off.

The Victor Benders of Colony Hill Road camped their way around Lake Superior. They have such enthusiasm for the Canadian shore line that they are now planning to go to the Soo and explore the route east.

THE JOSEPH CHAVERS of Captains Lane just returned from dude-ranching in Ennis, Mont. Pack trips and horses ascended for their single use lured them back again for a repeat performance of a vacation they've enjoyed before.

Mrs. Robert Egan and daughters have returned from their little red cottage at Point Lookout on Lake Huron to their new house on Appletree lane.

HOUSEGUESTS have busied the Chet Davis family on Inkster and 14 Mile Road this month.

First the senior Davises of Perry, Mo., were here for a week and then came Chet's sister and husband, the William Carens, of Mexico, Mo., with their two little girls.

LOTS OF NEW faces are around Franklin this summer. Glenn and Doris Duckworth and 18-month-old Cheryl moved to Haverford from Nankin township and are full of enthusiasm for Our Town.

Glenn is with Ford Motor at Wixom and Doris has been sweet-trotting in summer school classes at Eastern Michigan working on her master's in special education.

ON LUCERNE is the Jim Cooper Family, Jim and Virginia have two children, Son Brian 17, is entering Princeton in the fall and daughter Sally 9, will be in the fourth grade at Franklin.

Jim is with Ford International and the Coopers moved here from Stewart Manor, Garden City, Long Island.

Dr. John Doran, with wife Marie and six little Dorans moved from Redford Township to Nottingham Road. Dr. Doran is president of the Mt. Carmel hospital staff. Four of the children, John, 9, Tom, 8, Cathy, 7, and Michael, 6, will be going to Holy Name in September and Jim, 4½, and baby, Patty, will be home to keep mama company.
