Scoutmaster Returns from Jamboree

BY ELIZABETH VAN LOAN
MI 7-2324
Arthur Brooks of Westmoor Road returned last week from the Scout Jamboree at Valley Forge, Pa., where he was public relations officer for the state of Michigan.

Mr. Brooks is president of the Clinton Valley Council, Scoutmaster of Meadow Lake's Troop 14, and associate adviser to Post 14.

CAROL VINE of W. Maple Road gave a miscellaneous shower Friday in honor of her brother's fiancée, Sandra Lee Chie, of Belleville, Mich.

Carol will be maid of honor at the wedding of Miss Chie and Arthur Vine on Sept. 15.

FOR TURNING in the most I.G.A. product labels in the recent statewide contest conducted by the grocery chain, Brent "Bobo" Spriggel, 13, of Kenmore Road and Steve Aiken, 15, of Inkster Road won trips to California.

They were flown to the West coast and put up at the Hotel Lafayette in Long Beach. During their five days in the state, they visited Marineland, Disneyland, Knott's Berry Farm and watched the Los Angeles Dodgers play the Phillies.

TO THE EAST coast went the Walter Rydzons of W. Doherty Drive.

Leaving three-year-old Mary Jo with an aunt in Columbus, O., the Rydzons, with their three other children, Jacqueline, Matthew and Mark, headed for Washington, D.C., and the youngsters' first glimpse of the nation's capital; then on to New York and the World's Fair. There they stayed at the Crossways-LaGuardia Hotel just a short ride from the fair where they spent four days.

The international exhibits interested them particularly. They heard mass in the chapel of the Vatican pavilion.

The popular Pepsi-Cola exhibit intrigued the children and they also took the flume ride, a roller-coaster on water instead of rails. Another highlight was being aboard the Swiss sky ride in the evening and getting a bird's-eye view as the daily fireworks and colored-fountain displays went off.

"After Washington and the fair, it was wonderful to relax in the Adirondacks," said Mrs. Rydzon.

From Lake George, the family traveled through the mountains to the St. Lawrence Seaway which they followed down to the Thousand Islands, and so on home.

Also enjoying an eastern vacation was the Martin Healey family of Sutters Lane who toured Canada, Maine and Cape Cod.

ANOTHER SUTTERS Lane family, the Donald Parkers, headed north for their vacation which they enjoyed at Milford Manor in Muskoka, Ont.

Harbor Springs was the vacation spot chosen by the Robert Piersons of Middleton Drive who were at Manasquan Beach Club with Bill and Sally for two weeks.

Northern Michigan was also the choice of the Herbert Eddy and Charles Myers families of New England Estates who had adjoining cottages for two weeks at Au-She-Gun Landing on Lake LeClair.

OTHER RETURNING vacationists include the James Bernadins and their four children of Eastmoor Road who spent two weeks in the Carolinas and Washington, D.C.

MRS. JAMES GARLICK, III

Newlyweds Will Live In Howell

Linda Osterling, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Osterling, was married to James Henry Garlick III Aug. 1 in a double ring ceremony at Calvary Methodist Church. Mr. Garlick is the son of the James Garlicks, Jr.

The couple held a reception in the church parlor following the service and then left on their honeymoon. They will live in Howell.

THE BRIDE wore white silk organza and taffeta and carried white daisy mums and stephanotis. Her honor attendant, Carol Holteaga, was in maize with yellow and white daisy mums in her bouquet.

The bridesmaids, Sally and Mary Garlick and Mrs. Bradley Bruce, wore similarly attired. John Garlick was best man. Larry Osterling, S. Tenney McGraw and Paul Garlick ushered.

Schoolmates Wed by UD Chancellor

University of Detroit graduates, Barbara Ann Marcinik and Thomas Joseph Connelly, were married Saturday by the University chancellor, the Very Rev. Celestine J. Steiner, S.J., at Gesù Church in Detroit.

Parents of the newlyweds are Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin W. Marcinik, of Utica, and Mr. and Mrs. Edward Joseph Connelly, of Franklin.

THE BRIDE wore a full length white taffeta gown with a bustled train and set-in girdle scattered with seed pearls. Her silk illusion veil fell from a tiny satin pillbox. A cascade bouquet of white rosebuds completed the ensemble.

Mary Cecilia Connelly, the bridegroom's sister, was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Rosie Sclarotta and Kathy Zanglin, classmates of the bride from U. of D. The attendants wore identical floor length empire gowns of pale gold silk and carried nosegays of yellow roses.

ROSS LUSCOMBE was best man and John Marcinik, Martin Hannigan, John Hopp and Kenneth Monroe ushered.

Following breakfast at Kingsley Inn and a reception at the Connelly home, the couple left to make their home in San Francisco where the bridegroom will study law at the University of San Francisco.
