Niece's Wedding Prompts Couple's Trip to Germany

BY ELLI BLAUMAN
MI 7-1485

When Mr. and Mrs. Robert K. Bohringers of Reedmere Road flew to Europe this summer they had several reasons for going, and high on the list was the wedding of their niece, Elizabeth Fisher, of Nuremberg, who lived with them in Beverly Hills for a year and a half.

Another reason was to visit friends and relatives in their home towns of Stuttgart and Nuremberg, and yet another was to take a side trip to Spain accompanying the honeymooning couple to Barcelona and Costa Brava.

While in Germany the Bohringers also visited Munich, the Bavarian Alps, Austria and Vienna, taking movies as they went. Now that they have returned from their five-week vacation, another niece from Nuremberg, Ursula Zitsinger, arrived last Friday and will spend a year in this country with the Bohringers.

A LULU of a luau took place at the Beverly Hills Athletic Club Saturday evening and the more than 60 couples who attended had a ball.

The hit of the evening were the dancers from the Eva McKeon Studio, Audrey Gurka, Darlene Fields, and Linda Linsky, who, dressed in authentic costumes, captivated the group with Hawaiian and Tahitian dances.

After their performance the girls had the club members on their feet to learn the hula, then Nick and Claudia Dean of the Jack Barnes Studio in Birmingham did such lovely exhibition dancing that the crowd wouldn't let them leave the floor.

The watermelon punch and island-type finger foods donated by members were almost too pretty to eat, but they didn't stand a chance against appetites stimulated by dancing and water volleyball.

Mr. Albert Shuttie, chairman of the event, was assisted by Mrs. Daniel Rompal.

SINCE THE LUAU was an early evening affair, Marge and Earl Zatt of Elizabeth Road had previously invited several members back for a buffet dinner on their back porch.

Those attending were Steve and Barb Dennis, the Bob Kratts, Daniel and Doris Rompal, Max and Bill Cloutier, and the Mary Luansens.

Mr. and Mrs. Archie Damman, Jr., of Friar Tuck named their new son, Mave Jeffrey when he arrived on July 24 at Beaumont Hospital.

Weighing 7 pounds, 10 ounces, Mave joins Archie, Kelly, Greg, and Michael at home.

MRS. ROY C. KIDNEY of Pierce Road invited several neighbors in last Friday morning to meet another neighbor, Mrs. Gil Rosewarne of Pierce Road, over coffee.

Among the guests were Mrs. Victor Tarabusi, Mrs. Leon Ricelli, Mrs. Gabriel Lasker, Mrs. McDonald, and Sister Mary Catherine of the Dominican order in New York City, who is visiting the Kidneys.

Back from a week on Lake Michigan are Mr. and Mrs. John G. Hoard of Amberst Road who, with John, David, Douglas, and Kathleen, spent an enjoyable week swimming and exploring the dunes.

THE RUSSELL Herzhbergers of Stellamar Drive, and Cathy, a senior at Groves High School, recently returned from a two-week camping trip in four of the New England states.

Since they are rock hounds, the Herzhbergers did some rock hunting on their vacation, and especially appreciated the Marble Museum at Proctor, Vt.

They also visited the Cape, Plymouth, and Sandwich where they toured the glass factory.

The Martin J. Scullys of 13 Mile Road had visitors from all over this summer and are currently entertaining Mrs. Scully's parents, the Alfred Gales of Brockton, Mass., who are here for a two-week stay to the delight of grandchildren Kathy, Sue, Maureen, and Skipper.

SEVEN BEVERLY Hills Boy Scouts were selected to attend the Boy Scout Jamboree at Valley Forge recently where they camped out for eight days, soaked in history and met boys from all over the nation.

The boys, who earned money for the trip themselves and visited the World's Fair before returning home, are Tom Saputo of Embassy Drive, Doug Tull of Riverside Drive, Bill Spencer of Vernon Drive, Don and Ray Fraser of Vernon Drive, and Randy and Roger Poland of Southview Road.

They were accompanied by their scoutmaster, Leslie Poland, who is also Roger and Randy's dad. No sooner home, they will leave again on Saturday, this time for one week at the D-Bar-A Ranch at Metamora.
