Dancers 'Warm' New Apartment

It was the swingin'est—but then, most impromptu parties turn out that way.

The Herbert Craws have just finished doing over their apartment at Fox and Hounds and some kind of a housewarming was in order. Daughter Tara Craw arose to the occasion.

She had about 25 pals lined up for a buffet supper of hamburgers and cokes and there was dancing to "live" music ... in the "Tower Loft."

Among the guests were Linda Brandt, Diane Bohnsack, Larry Glefke, Marilyn Flint, Judy Carpenter, Rick and Alison Cram, Mike Pettibone, Penny Mitchell, Diane Richardson, Tom Bachman, Jim Bonam, Boo Egan, Jane Mead, Tim Resoner, Neil Fleming, Toni Jo and Linda Frankford.

And "Duffy," the hostess' pet, who had more fun than people.

Bar Auxiliary To Meet Today

The Oakland County Bar Association Auxiliary will meet today at 10 a.m. at the home of its president, Mrs. Douglas Booth, 1418 Inwood Circle, Bloomfield Hills.

The women will be planning programs for fund-raising events during the year, and discuss the Lawyers' Wives of Michigan convention to be held in conjunction with the State Bar Association in Grand Rapids in September.

Mrs. Booth also entertained the board for luncheon in June.

COMMITTEE CHAIRMEN appointed at that time were Mrs. Phillip Pratt, program; Mrs. Clark J. Adams, membership; Mrs. Richard A. Condit, hospitality; Mrs. John Manikoff, house; Mrs. Joseph Kosik, Mrs. Howard Bond, Mrs. Robert Anderson and Mrs. Arthur E. Moore, publicity.

Others are Mrs. John O'Brien, public relations; Mrs. Calvin Patterson, notifications; Mrs. Jerome Barry, ways and means; Mrs. Phillip E. Rowston, legal aid; and Mrs. Thomas T. Reese, representative to the Oakland University Leadership Conference.

Delegates to the Lawyers' Wives of Michigan are Mrs. Douglas Booth, Mrs. Howard Bond, Mrs. Cecil McCallum, Mrs. Arthur E. Moore and Mrs. Adast Stewart, alternate.

The Birmingham Eccentric

BIRMINGHAM, MICHIGAN
AUGUST 6, 1964

Most parents are mindful of the problems that often confront their offspring—even when the former children reach maturity... indeed, can a loving parent ever forget to be concerned with his offspring, regardless of age? But wise men and women always suggest that parents should never force their advice on others; rather, wait until such advice is requested. (GRA)

Attention! Topless Bather Spotted at Chalmers Lake

GLORIA JESSIP
MA 6-3257

Chalmers Lake may not be the first beach in the area to claim a young miss in one of the controversial new topless bathing suits BUT—it is the first one reported in this area to this columnist's knowledge.

The young miss in question has curly blond-red hair, a perfect figure and can be seen almost any day after nap time. She is Keira Souther, age 15 months.

TWO OTHER young ladies (but not nearly as young as our bathing beauty) are Carolyn and Pam Dameron, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Dameron of Lakeview Drive. These young ladies have just returned from a fabulous trip which took them to San Francisco, Los Angeles and Hawaii.

Accompanying the girls was their grandmother, Mrs. Charles J. Dameron of Beverly Hills. In just two weeks the trio flew to San Francisco and saw Chinatown, Fisherman's Wharf and Top of the Mark; then on to Hawaii where they stayed in the Hilton Hawaiian Village; attended a hula and took hula lessons. To top off the trip, they stopped in Los Angeles to visit Disneyland.

MR. AND MRS. JOHN Orlich of Lakewood Road, Chalmers Lake, returned home Friday morning from a month tour of the West. Accompanying their parents were Johnny, 12, and Kathy, 14.

The quartet left July 1 to begin their $500 mile tour which included Las Vegas, Disneyland, Sequoia, Yosemite and Yellowstone National Parks.

Stops were made at Marineland, Mt. Rushmore, Petrified Forest, Grand Canyon, Sunset and Meteorite Craters, Hoover Dam, Bad Lands and Great Salt Lake.

Another highlight of the trip was a reunion after 20 years with old friends, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Steele of Fallbrook, Calif.

A REUNION took place in the E. R. Nielsen home on S. Pemberton, Devon Hills, recently. The Nielsens welcomed back former residents, Harry and Mary Lou Winn and their children, Candy and Randy.

After a four-day visit, the Winn family returned to their Wilmington, Del., home.

THE R. H. Kempfs are back home again on S. Pemberton. Accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wait of Pontiac, the two couples drove to Vancouver where they boarded the ship, Princess Patricia.

Highlights included a trip by train across the Gold Rush Country from Skagway, Alaska, to Carcross, Yukon Territory, and stops in Victoria and Lake Louise. They returned home, via the trans Canadian highway, enjoying the beautiful scenery.

THE DAVID BROCKWAYS of Van Ness Drive, Knob Hill, went in different directions at the beginning of their vacation.

Brockway spent three weeks on business in Brazil, Argentina and Venezuela before joining his wife and their daughters, Pat, Susan and Lori at Cape Maine. In the meantime Mrs. Brockway and the girls had spent their time at the Fair.

When the family assembled at the beach, they were joined by Dr. and Mrs. Robert Cooper and their three children of Beverly Hills for a week of relaxation before returning home.

A BELATED but hearty welcome to newcomers Jim and Thelma Heath of Goddard Court, Sodon Lake. They and their children, Gary, Leslie and Jeff are former residents of Detroit.

Last Saturday evening, the Heaths entertained 16 of their friends at a barbecue.

Bridal Pair Returning On Aug. 15

Mr. and Mrs. John Preston Fleser (Jacquelyn Carol Shada) are expected home Aug. 15 from their honeymoon at The Greenbriar, White Sulphur Springs, W. Va.

They will live in Birmingham. The Flesers were married Aug. 1 in Our Lady Star of the Sea Church in Grosse Pointe Woods. The bride is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. J. C. Shada, of Grosse Pointe, and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Fleser, of Birmingham.

THE BRIDAL GOWN was white organza and lace and a single organza veil held the bridal veil. Gardenias and lilies of the valley composed the bridal bouquet.

Mrs. Daniel Sullivan of Warren was her sister's only attendant wearing white and blue linen and carrying white carnations. Mr. Sullivan was best man. Dennis and John Shada ushered.
