BOUQUET OF STYLE
Miniature flowers on panel tucked shirt

The blouse with a print is the headline maker in fashion news today. Patterns range from tiny concise calico florals to splashy neat stripes. An important feature of the collections is the shirt-jac adapted from the style that was so important in the men's sportswear picture last spring.

The Ship 'n' Shore line introduced two new fabrics: Oxford cloth of polyester and cotton and styled in both button-down and Bermuda-collared styles, and a Dacron crepe with a silky hand.

Tigers Win Championship; Manager's Birthday Gift

BY MARION CASKEY
MA 6-6860

Hurray for the Little League Tigers! For the second straight year they won the Franklin championship, thus bestowing on Manager Schaefer the best possible present to celebrate his Aug. 1 birthday.

The team adjourned to the James O'Neill's on Havorford following the game for a bang-up celebration. Two days before they had been treated to a swimming party at the Jack Roberts' pool followed by a barbeque at the Schaefer's yard.

OVER ON Tweed Drive Bob Rottiers is spending his five-week vacation from the Air Force Academy with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Rottiers. With brother Russ, the four spent last week fishing up in Wawa, Ont. Bob just returned from a trip to Europe where he ran into his old buddy from Franklin, Kirk Kelly, who now lives in Germany. It seems Kirk noticed some Air Force Academy cadets on a German street and asked them if they knew Rob.

They forthwith escorted Kirk to Rob's hotel room. Kirk awakened Rob then and they spent the next three days in Germany together.

Visiting Dan Dozier and his family on Willowgreen for 10 days is Karen Davidson of Harlem, Mont. Dan and Karen are classmates at the University of Montana.

A VISIT to their sons' camp took the Philip Minkins and Seymour Brodes to Canada and they are now boosting Toronto.

Before they week-ended in the "very continental" city they visited Camp Tamakwa in Algonquin Park where young Jerry Minkin and Rick Brode, next door neighbors on Franklin Park drive, are adjoining bunkers.

On the way home Sunday, they stopped at Camp Tanuga near Kalkaska, Mich., to visit Marcy Brode camping there.

A most interesting houseguest was hosted by Bob and Muriel Smith of Shelley Lynn Court this week. Here from Hilversum, the Netherlands, was Jack Buse', Bob's dealer there.

VISITING MR. and Mrs. Ed Apel of Wellington road is a favorite aunt of Molly's, Miss Mildred Kasted of Washington, D.C. Several of the neighbors whom Miss Kasted had met on a previous visit renewed their acquaintance over coffee one afternoon.

The Paul J. Zieghebaurs of Franklin road are enjoying the very best kind of house guests this week. Their son and daughter-in-law, John and Marilyn, are here from Lyons, N.Y., with their two children, Ronald and Kim.

YOUNG ED GARTH, of Wellington Road flew to Las Cruces, N. Mex., to spend the summer with his uncle, Mr. Sam Chavez. The town is located near White Sands National Monument, is the sight of New Mexico State University, and is not too far from the Mexican border. Although his correspondence home has been scanty, his parents expect his summer entertainment will include a Mexican bullfight.

The senior Gartha, Lillian and Bill, just returned from their first Michigan vacation at Northport. They have both lived in several other parts of the country and heretofore overlooked our north, but now are confirmed "Water Wonderland" enthusiasts.

Upon returning, the Garthas welcomed Bill's aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Vest Wingfield of Lynchburg, Va., who were with them a week.

OLD FRIENDS of the Ralph

Spessers, Sherie and Lou Troglia, visited them for a week in their Franklin Park Drive home. The Troglia's were former (See FRANKLIN, 5-CC)
