BLOOMFIELD SOUTH

Washingtons Tour Capital, 2 States During Vacation

By ELEANOR NELSEN
MI 7-9055

Three weeks in the East proved to be a wonderful vacation for Mr. and Mrs. Gene Washington (a possible relative of George) of Pickering. From June 25 to July 13 they toured Virginia, Pennsylvania, and the city of Washington, D.C.

While in the capital they visited with friends and toured the various war monuments and were in the Senate and House of Representatives while both were in session.

Mrs. Washington definitely feels that having done so makes one so much more aware of our government's actual functioning. In New York they enjoyed the Fair even though they did happen to pick a rainy day but the vendors were busy with producing rainwear which made the day not too bad.

HOUSE GUESTS at the Frank Kent home on Bradford Drive east the week end of July 24 were Mrs. Kent's mother, Mrs. John J. Roach, Dr. and Mrs. James McKavey and their son, John Gerard, all of Pittsburgh, Pa.

Accompanying them were James Downey and James McKavanaugh both of Belfast, Ireland, who are in the States on a three-week visit and anxious to see as many points of interest as possible during that period. They particularly enjoyed Cranbrook and the architecture of the area. While the house guests were here they celebrated young John Gerard's first birthday.

MR. AND MRS. JAMES Gentzil of Teyhnan Place returned home on July 10 after a two-week motoring trip which took them to Columbus, Ga., where they visited with Mrs. Gentzil's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Shelby Martin.

They found the weather much more to their liking this year on their visit because last year it was nothing but rain, rain and more rain. Their two children, David and Melora, were a delight to their grandparents.

The Joseph Moreaus of S. Williamsbury and their daughter Jeanette spent a few days in Chicago recently where they made an extensive tour of the Cook County Hospital and the nurses' quarters connected with it. Entertainment-wise, one of the highlights of their trip was dining at Don the Beachcomber's.

PERFECT CAMPING weather was enjoyed by Mr. and Mrs. Robert Tata of Berkshire Drive and the seven little Tatas when they spent two weeks at Wilderness State Park, beginning their vacation on July 6.

It was the second year in succession the Tatas have camped on the Straits of Mackinac. One of their side trips took them across the bridge to St. Ignace.

ALL CAMPAIGNING came to a momentary halt for Denton Hassell, a candidate for the Republican nomination for state representative in Legislative District 5, when he and Mrs. Hassell became grandparents for the second time.

Their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Black, Jr., of Farmington became parents of a daughter who will be named Sandi Lee. The young lady made her appearance on July 29 at the Art Center Hospital weighing in at 9 pounds, 5 ounces. Waiting to greet her at home is a brother, Hugh Robert, III.

THE WEST beckoned to Dr. and Mrs. Robert Poplawski of Berkshire Drive and on June 26 they left with their three sons Ralph, Clark and Alan to begin a three-week trip which took them to the Grand Tetons and Yellowstone Park.

While in the area they stayed in a cabin at Fishing Bridge, great trout country. It was the boys first long trip but already their next one is in the talking stages.

Ralph, a Cub Scout, made the most of the R & R re-conducted hikes and will now feel like an old pro at any ventures that may be planned by his troop in the future.

Apologies to Mrs. C. R. Vigested and Mrs. Allistair Dunn whose names appeared incorrectly spelled in this column last week.

on July 19 after a 10-day vacation which took them through the St. Lawrence Waterway a r.e.a. Maine, Vermont and New Hampshire.

Special points of interest were visited in Bar Harbor, Boston, Lexington, Cape Cod and the Fair in New York City. One place they shall always remember is a quaint inn in Jeffersonville, Vt., called the Windridge Farm Inn. They were accompanied by their children, Kay and Fred.

MISS JO-ANN PARKER, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Saul Parker of S. Cranbrook Cross Road, who will become the bride of Lee Blumberg, son of Judge and Mrs. Eugene Blumberg of Long Island, N. Y., on Aug. 16 has been fettered at a number of showers.

Her sorority, Phi Sigma Sigma from the University of Michigan, held a dinner in her honor on June 20.

A luncheon and shower cohosted by Dr. and Mrs. M. B. Sofen of Kalamazoo and Mr. and Mrs. Leo Wise of Detroit was held on July 18 at the Kriger Pickwick House. Family and friends, numbering about 40, came to wish the bride-elect the best of wishes.

The Joseph Moonneys of S. Williamsbury had as their house guests July 23-30, Dr. and Mrs. Ellis Roberts and their family from Wilkesburg, Pa. Dr. Roberts is president of Wilkes College.
