A most important garment for this coming fall — the simply styled wool dress for the days that are too warm for a suit but with a slight bite in the air. These dresses are precisely tailored and without trimming so they make suitable backgrounds for small fur pieces, and pleasing complements for dashing and fanciful hats. David Crystal, New York manufacturer well known for having the knack doing just such dresses, presents a group in novelty tweeds, ribbed knits and crisp worsteds. Available at Bloomfield Fashion Shop.

'Howard the Turtle' To Liven State Fair

"Howard the Turtle" will appear in person this year as the star of the free Children's Puppet Theatre at the 15th State Fair which opens Friday, Aug. 28, and runs through Labor Day, Sept. 7. "Howard" is the puppet television personality who has delighted children with his antics on "Raz-zle Dazzle."

neighbors of theirs in Grosse Pointe and now live in Watchung, N.J.

Franklin Junior Players have elected new directors. Jim Bunell is chairman with Russ Rottiers, Connie DiMatteo, Judy Rosello, Jim Wilson and Dick Werniak completing the board.

Rehearsals for "Jenny Kissed Me" and "The Spiral Staircase" are progressing each Monday, Wednesday and Thursday evenings at the Franklin Community Church. Help from all the members, whether cast in the plays or not, is most welcome at all rehearsals.

SOME OF OUR local talent among the village teen-agers have been attending Cranbrook Drama school this summer and have been showing off their accomplishments.

Starring in "Good-bye, My Fancy" Wednesday night was Jeanne Rosello while sister Judy had a part in that play for both the Tuesday and Wednesday performances. Next Wednesday the musical, "Return Engagement" will star Carolyn Thomas.

Former Franklinites, Archie and Peg MacCardell, who now live in Cologne, Germany, visited the Franklin Players' party at the Dick Probst's last Saturday night. They are in the States for a two-month leave.

CHET AND NITA Hard termed the second phase of their vacation as a "change" rather than a "rest," but enjoyable. They rented a big 10-room farmhouse at Walloon Lake and packed it with family and friends for a week. The style of living was relaxing, though, and things were never dull.

The Junior Youth group from the Franklin Community church spent all day Tuesday at Bob-Lo. A bus took them down to the boat at 8:30 a.m. and home after dark that night.

The Senior Youth Fellowship will have a barbecue Sunday night at Linda Pegley's home on Pickering road.
