CHIEF YELLOW SKY EAGLE

Standing guard before his tepee.

Indian Chief Draws Crowds At Metro Beach

One of the most striking figures at Metropolitan Beach these days is Chief Yellow Sky Eagle, who is "Indian-in-residence" at the park along Lake St. Clair. Dressed in war-bonnet, blue beaded vest and breech-clout, the colorful Indian makes his headquarters at the large tepee in the Tot Lot.

Several hundred youngsters come each day, Wednesday through Sunday, to ask him questions or just to stare in awed silence.

"I enjoy every moment of the time I'm out here," the Chief said. "Mostly I enjoy the children and just meeting people."

"THE CHILDREN most often ask me, 'Are you a real Indian?' and 'Have you ever fought with cowboys?' Adults frequently ask 'What tribe do you belong to?' or 'Where do you come from?'"

To all, Chief Yellow Sky Eagle answers that he is a full-blooded Ottawa Indian. The Ottawas were one of the major Indian tribes in Michigan territory, the others being Chippewas, Pottawatomies and Delawares.

Born in 1895 near Ludington, the 69-year-old Chief attended a now defunct boarding school for Indian boys in Mt. Pleasant. In 1916, he came to Detroit to work and was employed here regularly until his retirement 44 years later.

BESIDES PROVIDING atmosphere, Yellow Sky Eagle also teaches authentic Indian dancing every day at 3 p.m., except Monday and Tuesday, to children ages two through six. This popular event regularly attracts over a hundred children.

"When I was small we had Indian dances at home, especially in the spring at planting time when

State Senate Candidate Gives Views

Robert J. Huber is a candidate for Republican nomination in the newly redistricted state senatorial 16th District.

Huber is running on a platform of equitable tax distribution, expanded county services and stepping-up the program for attracting industry and increasing efficiency in state government.

Now serving his sixth year as mayor of Troy, Huber's major programs carried out during his administration include bringing Detroit water to residents, establishment of a complete sewer system, acquisition of a civic center site and a city operation which gives Troy the lowest tax rate in Oakland County.

Huber has served four years on the Oakland County Board of Supervisors, the County Drain Committee, County Roads and Bridges Committee, County Health Committee, Southeastern Michigan Water Authority and the Oakland County Mayor's Association.

IN 1963 he was chairman of Oakland County for Michigan Week, and instigated county-wide events for the special days of Michigan Week including the Mayor's Exchange luncheon on Government Day.

In the mid-50's Huber moved to Troy from Detroit where he served as treasurer of the Troy Republican Club for a year. He also served as the Republican precinct delegate from the 1st precinct in Troy for four years, 1956 to 1960.

During this time he participated actively on state and county levels. Huber, 41, is a graduate of Yale University. For the past twelve years he has been president of the Michigan Chrome and Chemical Co. and its four subsidiaries, and a director of the Troy National Bank. Bob and his wife, Polly, reside at 4909 Beach Road, Birmingham.

Are you driving this vacation? If it is a long trip—and expressway trips often are—stop at the rest areas and take a good walk, the Michigan Heart Association suggests. Stimulating the circulation of blood is good for you.

The International Circus will give three free shows daily in front of the grandstand at the 115th annual Michigan State Fair, Aug. 28 through Sept. 7.
