

Newly-wed Couple Tours Adirondacks

MRS. BRUCE G. STEINFELDT

Following their wedding Saturday at Christ Church Cranbrook, Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Gordon Steinfeldt received their guests at Birmingham House Motel and then left for a wedding trip through the Adirondacks.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Deless E. Gilbert, was gown'd in a Bianchi robe of white silk organza applique'd with Alencon lace dotted with crystal beads. Her veil was held by a wreath of crystal embroidered peau de soie petals and she carried white orchids.

Mrs. William Gilbert was her sister-in-law's matron of honor. The bridesmaids were Anne Fontaine, Lorraine Pierson of Delton and Donna Wilkin. All the girls wore identical gowns of pink chiffon accented with satin and carried carried rubrum lilies.

Mr. Gilbert was best man and ushering were Robin Hood of Detroit, Albert Rollings of Grosse Pointe City and William Tower of Stockbridge.

Mr. Steinfeldt is the son of the Gordon F. Steinfeldts of Rochester, N.Y. He will continue his study of veterinary medicine at MSU next fall. The couple will live in East Lansing.

Camp Seneca, a day camp sponsored by Southern Oakland Girl Scout Council, ended its two weeks session Friday with 110 girls taking part in a program held in a clearing of the wooded camp site on the Chrysler property at Coolidge and East Long Lake Roads. Girls divided into units, Squirrels, Owls, Bees, Bears and Chipmunks performed Indian dances they made up themselves and wore Indian costumes—their own designs.

The Girl Scout day camp, one of several located in South Oakland this year replacing Indian-wood day camp, served girls from Birmingham, Bloomfield Hills east of Woodward, Clawson and Troy. On the administrative staff were Mrs. Harold Handley, Birmingham, Camp Director and Mrs. Bernard T. Hibbard, Jr., Royal Oak, Assistant Director. Others on the staff were Mrs. James Rogers, Clawson; Mrs. Robert A. Winkle, Clawson; Mrs. Walter E. Krell, Royal Oak and Mrs. Raymond C. Fischer, Birmingham. Mrs. Clay Cogswell, Birmingham and Mrs. Kenneth S. Keith, Clawson were in charge of the nursery and Mrs. J. C. Staples, Bloomfield Township, took care of the boys' unit composed of sons of the counselors.

MR. AND MRS. William Case and their two daughters, 1573 Penitence, returned Saturday from a two weeks' vacation spent at a cottage at Lost Lake Woods Club, south of Alpena, Mich.

Mr. and Mrs. Philip J. La Pine, 1638 Hazel, spent two weeks at Milford, Conn., recently, as guests of Mr. La Pine's aunt, Mrs. Elias May, at her ocean-side home. They took time out from sun bathing to spend a few days at the World's Fair. Mrs. La Pine's sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Jonah Mitchell, and two children, Dearborn, accompanied the La Pines on the trip.

Dividing their vacation time between two sons living miles apart, Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Spehar, 929 Hazel, flew to California to visit son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Spehar of Garden Grove, stopping en route to visit friends, Mr. and Mrs. George Howell, Wilmett, Ill.

They arrived in California in time for a birthday celebration for one-year-old Kathy Spehar. Part two of their vacation was spent camping at Lake Geneva, Milwaukee, Wis. and visiting son, David, who lives in Milwaukee.

AFTER WALKING miles to take in the sights at the World's Fair, Mr. and Mrs. Franklin C. Holmes, 1353 Hazel, and son, Jeff, went to Cape Cod and cooled their aching feet in the ocean. The sight of a shark didn't dim their enthusiasm for swimming in the ocean and sun bathing on the wind-swept sand.

On their way to California for a three-week vacation, Mr. and Mrs. Keith Carpenter and family stopped in Birmingham briefly at the home of Mr. Carpenter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Allen Carpenter, 1622 Bowers. They arrived early Thursday and left Friday morning.

MR. AND MRS. Herbert W. Gost, and daughters, 1414 Hazel, spent two weeks with Mr. Gost's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Gost, Manhasset, L. I. recently, dividing their time between seeing the World's Fair and swimming in the ocean. They leave Friday for a week with Dr. and Mrs. C. Paul Taylor at their cottage on Mitchell Lake, Cadillac, Mich. Mrs. Lew Churchill, 1335 N. Eton, and David will join the Taylors and Gosts for the weekend.

MRS. RICHARD F. TIEMAN

Sets Oct. Date

Mr. and Mrs. James M. Osborne of Lathrup Village announce the engagement of their daughter, Kathleen Mary, to G. Russell Wilger, Jr., son of the senior Wilgers, of Royal Oak. The bride-elect has set Oct. 3 for the wedding which will be solemnized at the Church of St. Bede by her uncle, Fr. Francis Osborne. Miss Osborne attended Marquette in Milwaukee, Wis., and her fiancé went to Cerritos College in Los Angeles.

Newlyweds Leave On Jamaica Trip

Judith Ann Crumley of Detroit and Richard Fred Tieman of Birmingham were married Saturday in Gracious Saviour Lutheran Church in Detroit. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Richard Crumley and the late Mr. Crumley and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Tieman 1845 Warwick.

Immediately after the ceremony the newlyweds received the guests in the church hall and left by motor for Florida from where they will fly to Jamaica on their wedding trip.

The long bridal gown was fashioned with a lace bodice and an organza skirt over white tulle. The bride's flowers were white roses and mums.

Mrs. Thomas LaPard of Detroit was the bride's only attendant, wearing aqua peau de sole and carrying yellow mums. George Roberson was best man and John Tieman and Charles Collins ushered. The couple will live in Birmingham.
