Fishing Vacation Takes Tiptons to UP, Canada

By ELLI BLAUMAN
MI 7-1465

The O. H. Tiptons of Arlington Drive returned late last Saturday from a fishing vacation which took them through northern Michigan into Canada and back to Michigan again.

First the Tiptons and Chuck, 14, aving by Camp Westminster at Higgins Lake to pick up David, 12, then continued to Brevort near St. Ignace in the Upper Peninsula from which they made a side trip to Mackinac Island where the boys rented bicycles and explored the island and old Fort Michilimack.

From that point on, their fishing rods were hardly out of their hands because from the island they headed straight for the Georgian Bay, Lake Nipissing, the Muskoka Lake area, Lake Simcoe and Lake Huron.

Before returning to their home, however, they stopped for a week at their Big Lake cottage for some more fishing, concluding a three-week outdoor holiday.

LAST WEDNESDAY evening approximately 100 teams in hill-billy costumes showed up at the Beverly Hills Athletic Club which was appropriately decorated for a country style hootenanny.

A "square crow" presided over moonshine jugs and a still, red bandannas and straw hats dangled from a clothesline around the pool, while a weather-vane pointed the way to hot dogs, ice cream, and pop.

"Skip" Arthur, son of the Mark Arthurs of Lauderdale Road, who has performed at the Raven in Birmingham, played his guitar and sang for the group, many of whom had their own instruments there for the occasion.

Adults present were Mr. and Mrs. George Gordon, Jr., of Dunblaine Road and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Hatch of Beverly Road.

MR. AND MRS. THOMAS Mitzelfeld of Chelton Drive recently attended a cocktail party in Grosse Pointe honoring their long-time friend John E. Hoskins, executive director of Goodwill Industries, who had just been awarded his doctorate in psychology.

On Sunday afternoon the Mitzelfelds and other members of their dance club will head for Redford for a swim party and picnic.

DAVID YARDLEY, son of the D. A. Yardleys of Buckingham Road, is back after a month at Sutton's Bay on the Leelanau Peninsula where he was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph C. Hanson of Franklin.

Dave and Byron Hanson, both seniors at Groves High School, did a lot of water skiing, swimming, and horseback riding before returning home last week.

McCormicks Given Papal Blessing

MRS. JARRET MCCORMICK

Upon their return from New England, Mr. and Mrs. Jarret McCormick will be at home in Detroit and the bride will commute to Birmingham in September to teach in Holy Name School.

Mrs. McCormick is the former Delphine DiGiovanni. She and Mr. McCormick were married Aug. 1 in St. Owens Church, with a special blessing from Pope Paul VI. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack DiGiovanni of Franklin and her husband's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Robert McCormick of Harper Woods.

The bridal gown was white organza over peau de sole embroidered in a rose pattern with seed pearls and bugle beads. A tall pillbox held the silk illusion bridal veil and the bridal bouquet was of stephanotis.

Janice Jeri DiGiovanni attended her sister as maid of honor and the bridesmaids were Sharylyn Schenith of Bloomfield, Carol Ann Schalk of Madison Heights, Carolyn Calotto of Harper Woods, Sharon Sakuta of Birmingham, and Jacquelyn DiGiovanni, another sister of the bride. They wore frosted pink organza Canada where Mrs. H. Judy, Barbie and John spent one month while Bill drove up to be with them on the week ends.

The girls took swimming instruction in the Bay and Barbie received her Bronze Medalion while Judy passed the Junior Red Cross requirements.

MRS. WALTER DUL, JR.

Miss Barnes, Walter Dul Speak Vows

The "Hawaiian Wedding Song" was the background music for the service in which Karen Elizabeth Barnes became the bride of Walter Dul, Jr., of Garfield, N.J. Karen is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edmund B. Barnes of Birmingham.

The wedding took place in Franklin Community Church on Saturday afternoon.

The bride wore white georgette with a wide grille of white peau de sole holding her train. Bands of white peau held her bouffant veil and she carried a crescent bouquet of white lilies.

Her attendants were in floor-length gowns of apricot georgette with midriff inserts of brocade ribbon matching the bands that held their butterfly veils. They carried orange Mid-century lilies and ivy. Margaret Albert of South Orange, N.J., was maid of honor and Kathleen Dul, sister of the bridegroom, was the bridesmaid.

Gary Bennanti of Garfield was best man and Timothy Barnes and Stanley Garvella of Belleville, N.Y., ushered.

A reception followed at the Village Woman's Club and the couple left on a tour of Upper New York State for two weeks. After Sept. 1 they will be at home in Saddle Brook, N.J.

Society Dept. deadline for all organizational news, wedding and engagements announcements is 3 p.m. on the Friday preceding Thursday publication.
