Kevin Goes to Grandma's House—in West Berlin

By GLORIA JESSUP
 MA 6-3257

It is really not unusual for children with or without parents to take a trip to "Grandma's" house. However, when Grandma happens to live in West Berlin, Germany, it is quite a different story.

It was a happy reunion for Mr. and Mrs. Gene Bordinat and son Kevin of Lakewood Road and Mrs. Alfrida Lietz when the family arrived recently. Mrs. Lietz was especially thrilled to see Kim and Kent Bordinat because she had never seen the two younger children.

THE FAMILY flew from New York to Berlin and visited with Mrs. Lietz for a week. The fact that Mrs. Lietz speaks only German and the children only English did not inhibit the visit.

During their stay they swam in the Wannsee, took a trip to the zoo and went over to the East zone for a few hours.

Five days were spent in Rome seeing the sights. Of special fascination were the fountains of D'Este, some 1200 in all. Two and one half days were spent in Lisbon and stop overs in Madrid and Glasgow concluded the trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Bordinat and Kevin were not long out of the air. They flew over to Delafield, Wis., on Saturday to spend the day touring the campus of St. John's Military Academy where Kevin will enter in September.

Mr. Alfred Elbrick of Washington, D.C., son of the U.S. ambassador to Yugoslavia, and his mother, Mrs. C. Burke Elbrick, were the houseguests of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Masquelier of Quarton Road, Bloomfield Hills, this past week end.

IT WAS A real surprise for

Mrs. Gertrude Fleming when she walked into Topinka's Country House for a quiet luncheon with a couple of neighbors recently. It was not so quiet after all because instead of a couple there were many more.

Attending the surprise luncheon in honor of Mrs. Fleming were Mesdames L. J. Chatfield, A. C. Clark, Robert Foreman, T. Norris Hitchman, Charles Keller, Donald Kitchen and Eugene Land.

Others included Mrs. J. A. Mackay, Mrs. H. M. Mularoni, Mrs. Orval Oppertshanser, Mrs. Joseph Shimmick, Mrs. Richard Souther, Mr. Brooke Stanford, Jr., Mrs. Oliver Tragee and Mrs. James Holden.

Mrs. James Holden (the former Joan Mularoni) was in town with her husband and four children for a 10-day visit with her mother, Mrs. H. M. Mularoni of Glendon Road, Chalmers Lake. The Holdens are former residents of Forman Drive, Wing Lake and are now living in New York state.

ANOTHER TYPE of party was held on water recently for Karin Batson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Batson formerly of Van New Drive, Knob Hill.

Claudia Carrick was hostess for the day aboard her parents' boat Reeroom with Bill Carrick acting as captain and Nana (Mrs. Bill) helping as assistant hostess.

Attending the all-day affair were Barb Kitchen, Ginny Goodman, Marsha Hetherington, Suzanne Todd, Nancy Dearborn, Diane Jones, Kathy Mauck and Janice Bird.

A few days after the party Karin and her family left to make their new home in Delaware.

HAVE YOU MET the new residents of Grindley Court, JoAnne and Lou Hagopian? They formerly lived on Foran Road. Lou has been a resident of Birmingham for many years, attending and graduating from Birmingham High School.

Both Lou and JoAnne are graduates of Michigan State University. He is a vice president and office manager for the Detroit branch of N. W. Ayer and Son.

The Hagopians have three children. They are Shais, 6, Tom, 5, and Mathew, 1. For relaxation JoAnne and Lou favor skiing and golf.
