THE NEWLY FORMED Teen Club of subdivision No. 2 of Walnut Lake Estates gave a party last Thursday night for the younger children, ages five through 11.

A cock-out on the beach was followed by three hours of games, a twist contest and cake auction. Rodney Nelson was chairman of the committee in charge.

Ducks

Rochester got acquainted with the new arrival.

The new baby, Timothy Carr, was born on July 25. The Carrs have two other children, Mary and Michael.

MRS. CRISP entertained at a morning coffee recently introducing her new neighbor, Mrs. Donald Walts, to other Juniper Court residents.

The Walts of Birmingham are formerly of Saginaw. They have three children, Debbie, 11, Don, Jr., 11 and Candy, 7. Walts is general sales manager with General Electric in Pontiac. Among the family's many hobbies are snow and water skiing, diving and painting.

The Walts family has just returned home after two weeks of cottage living at Elk Lake in northern Michigan. Guests during their stay were the Albert Snyder family of Derby Road.

Visiting this week from Huntington Beach, Calif., are the former Saginaw friends, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lent.

NEWCOMERS TO Pine Hill Drive are Mr. and Mrs. Asa Wilson, Jr., and children, Asa, III, Denise, Glenn and Kelly, of Birmingham and Royal Oak. Wilson has the auto dealership, Royal Pontiac. He and his family enjoy snow and water skiing and golf.

They have just returned home from a month of cottage life at Walloon Lake in northern Michigan. Joining them were relatives Mr. and Mrs. Asa E. Wilson, Sr., of Detroit and Mr. and Mrs. John Sterling's daughters, Alice and Nancy, also spent some time with them from camping nearby at Four Way Lodge.

THE JAMES EDGARS and children, Suzanne and Jim, are newcomers to Pine Hill Drive from Wilmington, Del. Mr. Edgar is a consultant with Touche, Ross, Bailey & Smart. Their interests include golf, music and travel.

Visiting them recently for 10 days were Edgars' parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Hause of Chatham, N. J.

MR. AND MRS. DAVID W. Williams, Jr., of Tothill Road and children, Tom, Sheila and Davey, will leave on Aug. 14 for St. Louis, Mo., for a three-day visit with son, Michael, who is beginning a three-year study of philosophy at St. Louis University, in the Jesuit Wisconsin Province.

They will return just in time for Tom to enter Columbiere College at Clarkston, Mich., the Jesuit seminary for the Detroit Province.

Girl Graduates Feast, 'Gab'; Exchange Plans over Barbeque

BY ELEANOR NELSEN
MI 7-0056

Joan Palmer and Judy McKinnon, both recent graduates of Marian High School, cohosted a back yard party for more than 50 of their classmates at the Palmer home on Middlebury Aug. 2.

After partaking of punch and barbeque, the girls had a merry gabfest about their individual plans of continuing their educations or beginning careers.

Joan will be entering Michigan

State this fall while Judy's path leads to the University of Michigan. Cute point of the evening was when one of the girls proposed a peace pipe as a token of friendships to continue.

WEDNESDAY at eight and not a woman late. Reason Mrs. Harold Hillier of S. Cranbrook Cross Road hosted a baby shower with Mrs. James McClune as the honored guest. The party took place Aug. 12.

The guest list included Mrs. McClune's mother-in-law, Mrs. Ronald McClune of Detroit; her sister, Mrs. Edwin Nickel also of Detroit, and many friends and neighbors.

HOUSE GUESTS at the Simon Berg home on Old Mill Road have been the Berg's son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Griffiths of Minneapolis,

August 13, 1964 THE BIRMINGHAM (MICH.) ECCENTRIC 7-CC

Min., and their two children Gary and Susan.

The Griffiths arrived July 10 after going in a roundabout way and traveling through the Ozarks. Mr. Griffith has since returned home but will be coming back towards the end of August after which the family will drive back home together.

AL OBERSON SAYS . . .

Sound sounding the Oberson Method, especially in apartments today is a practical and financial necessity. Inasmuch as prospective tenants must be assured that their neighbors will not have their private conversations. That is why apartment builders in Michigan are turning to Oberson for effective noise control.
