Committee Planning for 'Fair Lady'

Preparations for the gala film premiere of "My Fair Lady" at Detroit's United Artists Theatre (Oct. 28) are already underway, announced Mrs. Joseph E. Hayne, chairman of this benefit event for the Founders Society Detroit Institute of Arts.

Tickets for the first night performance will be available exclusively through the Founders Society office.

Mrs. Hayne selected a group of her own "fair ladies" from the Founders Society Activities Committee to arrange the theatre evening. Among these is Mrs. Raymond T. Ferring, 545 Yarboro

Road, Bloomfield Hills, cochairman of the invitations committee.

ARRANGEMENTS ARE also being made for a complimentary Old English Afterglow to which the "My Fair Lady" benefit premiere audience will be invited.

The premiere evening is open to the general public, and tickets are on a contribution basis ranging from $10 to $50. Additional information may be obtained from the Founders Society office in The Detroit Institute of Arts.
