High Finance

Publishing Firm Names Resident To New Position

Kenneth R. Hannah is the new Detroit manager for the Stanley Publishing Co. replacing Richard W. Lacey. Hannah's appointment to represent the automotive Stanley newspapers is part of an expansion program to accelerate and intensify the Stanley pattern of decentralized sales and service activity from the Detroit office.
