Newlyweds Go North To Teach

Marcia Beth Kempf, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene John Kempf, became the bride of Gerald Dennis Slosser of Hale, Mich., Saturday. After a Northern Michigan honeymoon the couple will settle in Sebewaing, Mich., where both will teach in the high school.

The double ring ceremony took place in Birmingham's First Presbyterian Church, the bride wearing white organza over taffeta with a pearl-studded rose holding her veil. She carried roses and Stephanotis.

Janice Kempf, as her sister's maid of honor, and the bridesmaids, Shirley Kremkow, Detroit, and Karen Boatman, Lansing, wore identical outfits of blue and carried blue-dyed carnations. Janice's bouquet was centered with sweetheart roses.

Tyrone Lubanski was best man. He is from Bad Axe. Eugene Kempf, Jr., of Clawson, and Stuart E. Kempf of Commerce Township, were the ushers.
