Visitors from Lima, Peru, were guests in the Joseph Prahler home on S. Gleggarry for several days the week of Aug. 9.

Mrs. Kenneth Wilcox, who is Mr. Prahler's sister, and her daughter, Louisa Patricia, are in the States for a three-month visit and are making the rounds in an attempt to spend some time with most of their relatives.

They arrived here from Rochester, N. Y. after visiting with the Prahler family who reside there. Except for periodical trips to the States, Louisa Patricia, who was born in South America five years ago, definitely considers Lima her home country. Young as she is, Louisa Patricia is learning to speak four languages.

secretary, Mrs. Merrill Hayden; and corresponding secretary, Mrs. William O'Connor.

Committee members are publicity, Mrs. Alvin Wagstaff; hospitality, Mrs. William Jones; civic improvement, Mrs. Robert McHale; island, Mrs. William Long; ways and means, Mrs. Howard Locker, with Mrs. George McCarty as co-chairman; and advisor, Mrs. Stanley Martin.

BRIDE-ELECT, Bridget Anne Woods, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Woods of West Bradford Drive, has been the honored guest at a number of recent showers.

Bridget Anne, who has been working at Georgetown Hospital in Washington, D.C., in service education, attended three showers held for her by roommates and friends in the east before she returned home on Aug. 9.

Three of her aunts, Mrs. James Boehm, Mrs. William Buckley and Mrs. John Dean, were the hostesses at a brunch and miscellaneous shower held at the Western Golf Club on Aug. 10.

On Aug. 12 three cousins, Mrs. William Collier, Mrs. Robert Philip and Mrs. John McConnell, hosted a shower for Bridget Anne in the Philips home, Friday evening, Aug. 14, a dinner party was held by Mrs. William F. Chester of Grosse Pointe, which was also a recipe shower.

A personal shower was given at the home of Mrs. William Anderson on Aug. 17, at which the bridal attendants were the guests. A rehearsal dinner will be given by the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. Warren of Wash-

EMILY BETH PARKER, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Saul Parker of S. Crambrook Cross Road who was graduated from the University of Michigan in May, was married to M. Erwin Bank on June 14. After a honeymoon in Toronto, Can., and the Muskoka Lakes region, the Banks returned to their apartment in Ann Arbor.

Mrs. Bank is attending the graduate school working towards a master's degree in education. Mr. Bank is also attending Graduate School and is working on a doctoral degree in physics.

The youngest daughter of the Saul Parkers, Patricia Louise, is engaged in the activities of program director at a camp in the Torch Lake area. Patricia will return to classes at the University of Michigan as a sophomore in the early fall.

DO YOU LIKE to play bridge? If so, anyone in the Bloomfield South area is invited to play with the Westchester Branch of the Women's National Farm and Garden Association group.

Proceeds from this group are used for the scholarship fund of the branch. Players are needed for both the ladies' and couples' league.

Residents who are interested may contact Mrs. Glenn Stenberg, 2910 Middlebury Lane.

AT AN AFTERNOON luncheon meeting held on Anchor Island on July 18 by the women's auxiliary of the Meadow Lake Farms area, the following women were elected to the board: Mrs. George McCarthy, Mrs. Robert McHale and Mrs. Alvin Wagstaff.

New officers are president, Mrs. Richard Hallock; vice-president, Mrs. William Jones; treasurer, Mrs. Maxwell Casey, recording
