reception at Roma Hall in Livonia.
Hugh had as his best man Len Thomas, who flew up from the Naval Air Base in Florida to take part in the ceremony. The bride and groom have since returned to Virginia where Hugh is in the service at Fort Huachuca.

POLLY TOMPKINS, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Steve Tompkins of Pickering, left Aug. 9 by train for San Francisco, Cal. While in the fascinating city, she will be visiting with the I. B. Goelings who have recently moved from this area.
One of the very new swim clubs now open is the Orchard Valley Swim Club located midway between 14 and 15 Mile roads near Middlebelt.
Their first group venture was a teen night held Aug. 5. The weather was perfect, the young people exuberant, so what else needs to be said?

WHEN NICE neighbors get business transfers to another city, people who like them always regret having to say goodbye.
Fifteen couples — friends and neighbors of the James Grahams of Westbourne Drive, who are moving to Pennsylvania, gathered at the home of the Joseph Mc-Nerneys of Westbourne Drive July 25. The party was cohosted by the Robert Johnsons.
Singing, dancing and a mid-night brunch patterned the evening. The Grahams were gifted with powder candlelars by the group, and the cohosts added the matching dish.

THEY CALLED it "the sister's party" when Mr. and Mrs. William McCormick of Grand Rapids, Mr. and Mrs. Basil Deardorff of Redford and Mr. and Mrs. G. P. Davey, Jr., of Westchester spent a long week end at the summer home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Adams on Harsen's Island July 18.
All four women are sisters. While the men golfed, the girls "antiqued." And that expression leaves the readers with more than one idea as to its meaning.
They say its not a secret that Mr. G. P. Davey, Jr., of Wadsworth Lane celebrated his 51st birthday. His wife Kay planned a birthday party in their home Aug. 1 to which both their sons-in-law and daughters came to wish "dear Dad" happy birthday. The young couples are Mr. and Mrs. James Calhoun of Toledo and Mr. and Mrs. Rodney Layton of Beverly Hills.

IF YOU wondered several weeks ago what had become of the smiling German woman, Elizabeth, who works behind one of the counters at Cranbrook Drugs, we are happy to announce she is back after a flying two-week trip made with her sister to visit their father who still lives in the European country.
The question most frequently asked of Barry Kriger these days is, "How does it feel to be back in the states?" Barry, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Kriger of S. Cranbrook Cross Road, arrived home Aug. 5 after having been abroad a full year.
When he left here last summer, he toured several of the European countries before going to Israel where he attended the university. He will spend his senior year of college at the University of Michigan.
THE BEST way to lose an appendix is to do it in a hurry. Susan Cook, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Cook of Breckenridge, complained of not feeling well at 7 p.m. July 31, and at 10 the same night the matter had been taken care of. By Tuesday Sue was back home taking up where she had left off.
Such antics on Middlebury Lane! Mrs. Frank Bacon had a surprise birthday cake for neighbor Mrs. Robert Seeger who awoke Aug. 5 to find a "Happy Birthday" greeting written on her front window.
Even the man delivering a package, upon spying the greeting, skipped up the driveway singing Happy Birthday to Mrs. Seeger. A pleasant afternoon of bridge at Mrs. Bacon's home was enjoyed by Mrs. Seeger and neighbors Mrs. Kluck and Mrs. Hanagan.

A Winner!

"Clopatra's Barge" floating down the Detroit River last Saturday took the overall prize in this opinion of the judges for the annual Venetian Night parade of boats at the Detroit Yacht Club. This is the second year in a row that the Paul Erickson boat has taken the honors. The Erickson family live on Middlebury Lane, Bloomfield Township.

JULY 16 is a day Mrs. Glenn Northrop of S. Cranbrook Cross Road will never forget. In the late afternoon she had put the finishing touches on her evening meal and walked in another room. Fortunately for her, she had taken those few steps because her kitchen range exploded and caused quite a bit of damage to the room. These past few weeks have found Mrs. Northrop knee deep in repair men, but finally all seems to be back to normal.
Relaxing after preparing for the marriage of their daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Fredrick Rowland of S. Cranbrook Cross Road motored to the Upper Peninsula during the week of July 18 where they enjoyed the National Forest in the area and picturesque Mackinac Island.
