Pair Honeymoon in Hawaii

Nancy Jane Bricker and Elton R. Eaton II were married at a candlelight ceremony Saturday evening in the First Methodist Church, Birmingham.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Landis Bricker of N. Glenarry Road, Birmingham. She is a granddaughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Mead L. Bricker, the former vice president of Ford Motor at the time of his retirement.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Sterling P. Eaton of Plymouth. His grandfather was executive secretary under Gov. Grobeck.

Soft candlelight illuminated the church and family benches were distinguished by white satin streamers and snowdrift chrysanthemums. Doctor G. Ernest Thomas of First Methodist performed the service.

The bridal robes and those of the eight attendants were designed along baroque lines of the Renaissance. The bride's was fashioned of same ivory peau de soie, overlaid with French tulle and embroidered Alencon lace. The bride held a cascade of royal bouquet and dendrobium orchids.

HER SISTER, Mary Ann Bricker, was maid of honor. She wore a gown of textured silk pink de serge with floor length skirt of controlled fullness. Sally Lynn Bricker, the junior maid of honor, and the six bridesmaids were attired in similar gowns.

Bridesmaids were Jo Ann Gerhard and Eleanor Jane Gerhard, cousins of the bride; Mrs. Kenneth Fraser; Mrs. Robert L. Smith; Mrs. John Watson and Mrs. Thomas Donigan.

Robert G. Dajnowicz III was best man. In the corps of ushers were Charles L. Bricker, Jr.,

brother of the bride; Howell Lee Davis; Frederick J. Guenther, Jr.; John Watson; Jonathan Calhoun Sharritt; Richard Virgil Bennett, Jr.; and Martin P. DiLoreto.

THE FLOWER girl was Meredith Lindsay, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert B. Lindsay. The ring bearer was Robert Lloyd Smith II, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lloyd Smith.

The newlyweds and their parents received guests in the living room of the Bricker home. The reception was held in the garden where a blue and white marquee was erected overlooking the illuminated swimming pool massed with floating flowers.

The newlyweds are honeymooning in Hawaii and will be at home on Concord Place, Bloomfield Hills.

'Birthday Girls' Celebrate Event

Mrs. Robert E. Brinton of Lane Lake Road, Bloomfield Hills, will be hostess at a luncheon and poolside party today around the newly-built swimming pool.

The party is for the group called the "Birthday Club"; members have been celebrating each others birthdays for over 10 years, exchanging small gifts for fun.

The main topic of conversation will be the 10 pound, 27 inch long lake trout that Mrs. Brinton caught at a private fishing lodge in northern Ontario, Canada, in July. The fish has been mounted to hang on the wall in the family room.

GUESTS WILL include Mrs. E. G. Winn, Mrs. Clifford Grovel, Mrs. Nora Nye, Mrs. Asa Drury, all of Bloomfield Hills; and Mrs. William Donaldson, Mrs. Carl Bird and Mrs. Roy Sampson, all of Pontiac.

The birthday cake will be for Mrs. William Donaldson, and box lunches will be served.

NURSERY SCHOOL?

Echo Park Nursery School and Kindergarten Directors take pleasure in announcing Sunday, September 6th & 13th as Open House day, and cordially invite friends and guests to visit with them between the hours of 2 and 6 P.M.

Dr. J. Neubacher—the school director—and members of his teaching staff will be on hand to discuss the school's curriculum, and advise as to children's scholastic or play needs.

The refreshing surroundings of this exceptional nursery school make it an ideal center for the area's youngest citizens to learn and play, and with Echo Park transportation covering the Birmingham-Bloomfield district, you may be wise to consider sending your child to this delightful place, where companionship is assured and the environment ideal.

The first school day of the 1964-65 season is September 17th, and early enrollment is recommended.
