

MSU Sophomore Given Scholarship

Entering his sophomore year at Michigan State University with a "first time" scholarship from the William B. Chase Foundation is John C. Kinsel, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry B. Kinsel, 30655 Pebblestone Court, Birmingham. He will major in business administration.

On a yearly renewal basis, the awards provide supplemental financial aid based on academic requirements and standing.

B'ham OES Set to Meet

A regular business meeting on Sept. 2 will open the season of the Birmingham Chapter No. 220 O.E.S. It will be held in the new Masonic Temple.

On Sept. 11 Mrs. Henry Bowden, Grand Representative of the State of Pennsylvania in Michigan, will be honored by the group at a dinner and reception. Reservations must be made by Sept. 8 with Miss Blanche Brooks.

Sept. 15 is the date of a sewing meeting at the home of Beulah Holmes and the following evening is Advanced Officers' Night honoring the Side-liners.

Reserve Marines On Field Training

Four residents are with three Marine Air Reserve squadrons from the Naval Air Station in Groese Ile that arrived in El Toro, Calif. to begin the final phase of their annual field training.

They are Sgt. Maj. William R. Bolin, 1552 Henrietta; Pfc. Reginald H. Butler Jr., 378 Harmon and Capt. Rufus Choate Jr., 7455 Cathedral Drive, all of Birmingham, and Maj. Robert S. Rainch, 18780 Bungalow, Lathrup Village.

The 200 officers and men will be in the field two weeks.

The Detroit Lions have four captains for the 1964 season: Joe Schmidt and Dick "Night Train" Lane on defense, and Terry Barr and Jim Gibbons on offense.

School Board Suggests Plan For Bussing

Carrying 60 pupils in a school bus for the price of 40 is a plan currently under study by Birmingham school officials.

They hope to accomplish their plan by widening the seats on one side on the aisle to allow three secondary pupils, instead of two, to occupy each wide seat.

Supt. John B. Smith and his assistant, Normal Wolfe, borrowed an idea used by some airlines for their suggestion to school board members Tuesday night.

THE BIRMINGHAM district expects to operate 44 buses this fall, most of them on triple runs. Addition of an estimated 1,000 passengers who attend non-public schools but must be bused by school systems receiving state support for transportation places an added premium on seating facilities.

Smith said he will contact the State Department of Public Instruction for a reaction to his proposal.

Resident Designs Hair, Fur Fashions For State Fair Show

Grace Scalls, fashion co-ordinator of the Bernard Beauty Salons and manager of the Birmingham-Bloomfield shops, has completed an original one act script, "Cavalcade of Fashion," to be presented in the

Troop's Success Story Spurred by Enthusiasm

Boy Scout Troop 1027 of Northminster Presbyterian Church has just completed a success story, which they feel may inspire other lagging troops.

"In September of 1963 it seemed that the very existence of the troop was in the balance," writes Charles L. Guess, an adult member of the troop committee.

"Then, early in October, several new boys joined, and with a nucleus of two boys from the old troop, things began to jump. Enthusiasm began to leap among the new Tenderfeet and went right on up to the parents, troop leaders and troop committee.

"OUR FIRST STEP was to train these boys to reach the level of second class rank and get them acquainted with outdoor living through hikes, training sessions and weekly meetings.

"With plenty of help from dads, lots of encouragement at home and meetings, and help from two older boys in the troop, we soon had half of the Tenderfeet promoted to second class and the rest close behind.

"In the meantime, word began to spread and we began to grow. Soon the troop contained 18 boys with three more ready to start in September, 1964.

"By mid-spring the boys were building up steam for summer camp and working steadily on second and first class achievements. The hikes had to be

Access Drive OK'd For Adams Drugs

Birmingham city commissioners Monday night declared necessary for an access drive on the east side of Woodward from Sheffield north to an existing access drive.

The new drive will be in front of the Adams Drug Store at Woodward and Sheffield and will be a continuation of the one that now exists in front of the Wrigley supermarket, from just north of Sheffield to Taunton.

The new drive was requested by C. Wesley Ebling, owner of the drug store property.

SPORT FANS!

I BET YOU DIDN'T KNOW

By Dick Turner

With the new football season rapidly approaching, here's an interesting fact to consider . . . In each of the last seven seasons, none of the college teams ranked No. 1 in those football polls has been able to repeat the next year . . . We've had a new champion every year . . . To refresh your memories, here are the No. 1 teams of the last seven seasons . . . 1957,

what's the color

PART TIME - FULL TIME OPPORTUNITIES at CHUDIKS

- Sewers — Fitters
- Ready-to-Wear Sales
- Bridal Sales
- Stockroom
- Presser

The above positions are available to applicants of experience. Good hours, pleasant surroundings in one of Birmingham's finest women's apparel stores. Many company benefits to qualified applicants.

APPLY TODAY!

chudiks

House Guests

Mr. and Mrs. James Oliver and their son, Mark, have been the guests of Mrs. Oliver's parents.