

Former Residents Return For Golf Event

Smith-Giles Vows Read Saturday

The wedding of Shirley Louise Smith and Robert Scripps Giles was solemnized Saturday at the First Presbyterian Church in Birmingham. The bride is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Carleton Asa Smith of Bloomfield Hills and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Elliot Giles of Weston, Mo.

Mrs. Giles is the former Barbara Whitcomb, daughter of the James Scripps Whitcomb who were residents of Pleasant Ridge for several years before moving to Grosse Pointe.

Miss Smith's bridal gown was ivory peau de soie and Chantilly lace. Her veil was elbow length secured by a pillbox of peau de soie. She carried a bouquet of stephanotis and orchids.

Judith Ann Smith was her sister's maid of honor. Her gown was floor-length of deep aqua chiffon and she carried yellow roses. The four bridesmaids, similarly attired, were Ann Sherwood of Bloomfield Hills, Mrs. Glenn A. Pope Jr., of Killeen, Texas, Ruth Otto, St. Paul Minn. and Mrs. Jerry Kellum Minneapolis, Minn.

Stephan VanderVoort of Grosse Pointe was best man. The ushers were Vance Ryerson, Grosse Pointe Park, Robert Shaughnessy, Wyandotte, Carleton A. Smith, Jr., and Jerry Kellum, Minneapolis.

The wedding reception was at Pine Lake Country Club and the newlyweds left for the Virgin Islands later.

In September they will be at home in Willow Grove, Pa., near Philadelphia.

David Browns Will Live in Grosse Pointe

Carole Anne Hudspeth became the bride of David Gray Brown Saturday at the First Methodist Church in Birmingham.

She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas H. Hudspeth of Birmingham and Mr. Brown is the son of Dr. and Mrs. Charles C. Merkel of Grosse Pointe where the newlyweds will live after a week-long honeymoon in Bermuda.

Miss Hudspeth was gowned in ivory peau de soie heavily embroidered with seed pearls. Her veil was an heirloom mantilla of Brussels lace and her flowers were orchids and roses.

The attendants wore chamisole colored crepe gowns with matching lace headpieces. Thank bouquets were messageys of yellow roses.

Mrs. Dale A. Brockway of Omaha, Neb. was her sister's matron of honor and the bridesmaids were Lynne Woodruff and Linda Walton of Detroit and the bridegroom's sister, Frances.

Mason Ferry Jr., of Grosse Pointe was the best man. Ushers were John and Waldo Brown, Mr. Brockway, John Fontaine, Errol Davis and Kenneth Brockway.

The wedding reception was held at the Village Woman's Club.

Mrs. Brown's going-away outfit was a three-piece costume of natural raw silk with navy trimming.

She is a graduate of Ferris State College and is continuing her studies at Wayne State University.

Mr. Brown is an alumnus of Albion where he was affiliated with Delta Tau Delta Fraternity.

Newlyweds Leave On Trip to Nassau

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Dale Kemp Jr., will return to Cambridge, Mass., to live after their wedding trip to Nassau.

Mrs. Kemp is the former Dorothy Lynn Dawson. Her marriage to Robert Dale Kemp, Jr., son of the senior Kemps of Grosse Pointe took place Saturday in Christ Church, Cranbrook.

The bridal gown was of organza over peau de soie banded with Alencon lace. Alencon lace fashioned the pillbox that held the bridal veil and the bouquet was of white sweetheart roses and stephanotis.

The attendants wore pink carnation chiffon. Mrs. Robert Woodruff was matron of honor. Virginia Lee Dawson was maid of honor and the bridesmaids were Mary Jane Carlson, Mrs. Frederick L. Woodworth, Mrs. David Garlick, Mrs. Henry B. Joy III and Janith Jordan.

Gregory Mark Kemp was best man.

John Herrick Gooch, of Boston, Frederick L. Woodworth of Ann Arbor, Thomas A. Wilson, Grosse Pointe, Andrew T. Goodyear, New Orleans, George C. Meyer, Great Neck, L. I., and James A. Kelly, Grosse Pointe, ushers.

The wedding reception was at the Detroit Golf Club.

LATHRUP - CRANBROOK VILLAGE

Kazoos Becoming Scarce; Hootenanny Is Popular

By GLORIA JESSUP
MA 6-3257

Do you have a "hooon"? Well, doesn't everyone? If you are one of the unfortunate ones who does not own one, it's too bad but you are just out of luck. The game was also geared to the theme. Such as musical chairs, passing the orange and dropping the clothes pins into boxes.

Among those attending from Cranbrook Village were Mr. and Mrs. William Neu, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Rose, the Jack Dinsley, Grosse Pointe, Andrew T. Goodyear, New Orleans, George C. Meyer, Great Neck, L. I., and James A. Kelly, Grosse Pointe, ushers.

The wedding reception was at the Detroit Golf Club.

course ending with a slide ride into the recreation room.

The first refreshment of the evening was consumed by drinking from a baby bottle. The games were also geared to the theme. Such as musical chairs, passing the orange and dropping the clothes pins into boxes.

Among those attending from Cranbrook Village were Mr. and Mrs. William Neu, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Rose, the Jack Dinsley, Grosse Pointe, Andrew T. Goodyear, New Orleans, George C. Meyer, Great Neck, L. I., and James A. Kelly, Grosse Pointe, ushers.

The wedding reception was at the Detroit Golf Club.

2 Sisters Meet While in Europe

Patti Ball, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence M. Ball, 1040 Chesterfield, Birmingham, returned last week after a two month's stay in France.

She attended the University of Grenoble to study French for one month and while there lived with a French family. The second month was spent touring southern France.

Upon her arrival in France, she was met by her sister, Penny, who had journeyed from Salzburg, Austria, so they could spend a week together in Paris.

LATER, during the Bastille Day holidays, Patti flew to Rome, and she and Penny took a trip through southern Italy and spent a week end at Capri. Penny will continue her piano studies in Rome this fall, and Patti will return to Stephens College in September.

Mrs. Stuart W. Frankford and her daughter, Linda, (left) are entertaining Mrs. James Riddell and her daughter, Sandi, (right) for the duration of the Carling Golf Tournament at Oakland Hills Country Club. The Riddells who now call Beverly Hills, Calif., their home, formerly lived in the Birmingham area.

MRS. ROBERT SCRIPPS GILES

MRS. DAVID GRAY BROWN

MRS. ROBERT DALE KEMP, JR.

ORT House Tour To Swell Funds

The "See Suburbia" project of American ORT is a house, garden and art tour of seven homes in the Bloomfield-Birmingham area on Oct. 9.

The houses that will be open on that day are those of Mr. and Mrs. Abraham Becker, 85 Judy Lane, Birmingham; Mr. and Mrs. Irving Feldman, 28319 Rivercrest, Southfield; Mr. and Mrs. Harold L. Gordon, 31469 Briarcliff, Franklin; Mr. and Mrs. David Howard, 27135 Crestwood Dr., Franklin; Mr. and Mrs. Victor Rothberg, 25225 Franklin Park Dr., Franklin; Mr. and Mrs. Ben Shwayder, 27551 Fairway Hills, Franklin; and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Winton, 1060 Ardmore Dr., Birmingham.

ORT is a program for rebuilding human lives through vocational education. Proceeds from the tour will go into the general fund.

Suburban Scene

By LAURENA PRINGLE
Special Writer

The Frank Lynch house has been like Grand Central Station this last week. And things are getting even livelier. The Lynch daughter was married last Saturday and the houseguests that came for the wedding are staying on for the Carling golf tournament.

Dr. and Mrs. Robert E. Leslie of El Campo, Texas, are "in residence" and the William Longs of Racine, Wis., are staying at the Thomas E. Sheehans'.

The Sheehans are also entertaining Mr. and Mrs. Frank Liebert of Winnetka, Ill., for the duration of the festivities at Oakland Hills.

It's a "pay-back" party at the Franklin H. Naus' this Saturday night. Weather permitting, the gathering will be held in the patio which had to have three new electrical outlets put in to accommodate the instruments of the musicians.

The William E. Slaughter, Jr.s, are back and still recounting to friends their adventures in Europe—a trip that took them to West Germany, Switzerland and Italy.

They were on the spot at the dedication ceremonies of West Germany's newest petroleum refinery—Marathon, of course. And that company of which Mr. S. is a director has just acquired a chain of 80 service stations in Germany and one of 6,005 in Italy.

For the Bride

Today Martha Steding will have acquired some handsome equipment for her new kitchen. At tea-time, Mrs. Thomas Marker is having just such a shower at her home on Orchard Ridge Rd., Bloomfield Hills.

Still on the schedule for Martha who will be married Sept. 19 to Robert Sintz, is a cocktail supper by Mr. and Mrs. John E. Quirk, to be given on Sept. 13. There is a bridesmaids' luncheon set for Sept. 17 at Oakland Hills and the rehearsal dinner which the bride-elect's father, H. Richard Steding III has booked at Devon Gables on Sept. 18.

Hostesses who have already entertained for Martha are Mrs. Maurice F. Smith, Sr., Mrs. W. Scott Purvis and Mrs. Eva Nephler, Mrs. B. N. Trombley and her recently married daughter, Mrs. Charles Hartung, Mrs. George Kendall and Mary Ann.

People Are Talking . . .

About Mrs. R. E. Leahy who won the Orchard Lake club golf championship for the seventh time this past month.

About the trick invitations that when out for the A. A. Schantz party last Sunday.

About the new Virginia Sunmer Shop with its French Provincial decor and its stock-in-depth of sizes 16-18 and 20s that few others bother with.

From the Orient

Ikuko Kato was warmly welcomed at the Howard McDonalds on Timberlake Drive, Bloomfield Hills. Traveling with the American Field Service from the New York World's Fair; Iku returned for a week's visit on the day that the McDonalds' daughter, Joan, returned from Europe. Joan had stayed with Iku's family in Tokyo four years ago as an AFS exchange student. Mr. Kato, director of the new Tokaido Line of Japan National Railroads, visited here last summer.

Parties Honor Bride-Elect

Valerie Sue Voelker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald F. Voelker, bride-elect of Gary L. Barnes of Grand Rapids, has been feted at many parties this summer.

Her final party, a spinsters dinner, will be given tonight by Dale Kosters of Hupp Cross Road, who is the maid of honor.

Wendy Weidner of Osoda and Donna Conrad of Birmingham entertained with a kitchen shower early in June at Central Michigan University. The guests were Val Valerie's Alpha Chi Omega sorority sisters.

Mrs. Arthur Bull of Bradway Blvd., had a luncheon and miscellaneous shower in June. Mrs. Virgil LaMarre of Tibury Road and Mrs. H. A. Swigert of Derby Road entertained at the LaMarre residence with a luncheon and bedroom-bathroom-shower.

THE LAST of July, Mrs. Murray A. Stewart of Waddington Road feted the bride-to-be with an evening party which was a personal shower.

Mrs. Robert Harvie of Pine Lake Road and Mrs. John J. Werner of Darcy Drive had a luncheon and kitchen shower at the Harvie home on Pine Lake in the middle of August.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Barnes of Grand Rapids will host the rehearsal dinner for the bride party tomorrow night at Devon Gables. The wedding ceremony will be Saturday at the First Presbyterian Church with a reception following in the social hall.