MRS. ARTHUR JAMES BINARD

Papal Blessing Sent To Arthur Binards

A papal blessing was bestowed on Sarah Kinsey Lynch and Arthur James Binard following their marriage in St. Hugo of the Hills Saturday morning. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Webster Lynch of Bloomfield Hills and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Vincent Binard of Roseville. Miss Lynch wore an Empire styled sheath of ivory silk peau de soie with a front panel of Alencon lace embroidered with seed pearls and crystals. Her veil fell from a Swedish crown of lace and she carried butterfly roses and stephanotis.

Her eight attendants were gold, the honor attendant, Mrs. William

C. Herrick, St. Clair Shores, and junior bridesmaid, Theresa Jane Sheehan, in crepe and the bridesmaids in chiffon. All carried yellow roses and white daisies.

The bridesmaids were Lynne Dianne Carey, Diana Gornick, Jane Leader, Christine Myers, all of Bloomfield, Katherine Anne Stark, Birmingham, and Kathryn Anne Westin, Ypsilanti.

Paul G. Caruso of Warren was best man. Ushers were Frederick R. Bowles, Detroit, Edward J. and Frederick J. Ferran, Chicago, William Herrick, Morris R. Jenkins, Roseville, Gerald J. Plouff, Warren, and Daniel Wood, Ann Arbor.

After a wedding trip in Northern Michigan, the Binards will live in Royal Oak.

Wild Kinsmen Gather Widely

The 36th annual reunion of the Wyde-Wilde-Wild kindred was held at Prairie View Park, Kalamazoo, Aug. 16 with around 60 of the kindred present.

After a pot luck dinner at 1 p.m., the secretary read the minutes of the last reunion as well as the records of the births, marriages and deaths in the family during 1964.

At the close of the meeting officers were elected for next year. Mrs. Helen Hubbard of Birmingham was elected president.

Second in Family Wears Bridal Gown

Wearing a bridal gown of ivory silk, organza and satin that had been worn originally by an elder sister, Katherine Mertie Smith became the bride of William Ralph Bell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph E. Bell of Birmingham, Saturday.

The older sister, Mrs. W. M. Smith of Upper Montclair, N.J., attended the wedding and her seven-year-old daughter, Katherine, was flower girl. The girls are the daughters of Mrs. Millard Thorn Smith of Birmingham.

The wedding mass was sung by Fr. Lucian A. Hebert in Our Lady Queen of Martyrs Church and was followed by a reception at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Milo Douze in Bloomfield Hills.

A second sister, Sally Thorn Smith, was maid of honor. She wore moss green organza with an embroidered sash of French ribbon at the waist and a matching hairbow and veil. Her bouquet was of orchids. The bridesmaids, in matching outfits, were
