Three Stuckey Brothers Attend Summer Camps

By ELIZABETH VAN LOAN MI 7-2324

It was camp in some form or other for the three Stuckey boys this past summer.

Gary, 17, was a junior counselor at the Y's Camp Ohyesa in Holly.

Greg, 15, spent a few days at Ohyesa in orientation then left with a group to spend the month of August on a voyager canoe trip.

Out on the coast, meanwhile, eldest brother Charles was taking his basic training at Ford Ord in Monterey, Calif.

Gary, Greg and Charles are the sons of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Stuckey of Fieldbrook Road.

THESE AFICIONADOS of the treasure hunt, the Joe Koszka's of Westmore Road, are off on the first hunt of the season tomorrow.

They'll report to the official starting point in Royal Oak for instructions and where they'll wind up at day's end is anybody's guess, including the Koszka's.

A TOPNOTCH babysitter must be Helen McIntyre, daughter of the George McIntyres of Old Orchard Drive, who flew in by jet Saturday from a two-week assignment in New Jersey.

Helene, who has five sisters and brothers and lots of experience, was the guest of the Richard Bergmanns, former residents of Darramoor Road, who are getting settled in a brand new home in Murray Hill.

Helene lent a talented hand with the four Bergmann boys who range in age from eight years to one.

The Jack Keller family of Raven Road is returning this week from a six weeks' stay at Mullett Lake.

THE GEORGE MOORES of Kingsmill Drive combined a vacation with his high school reunion at Spalding Institute in Peoria. They returned last week from the Illinois city where they were the guests of her mother, Mrs. A. H. Budaite.

The twins, Mark and Martha, accompanied them.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Kemp Houck will leave this week for their home in Chapel Hill, N. C., after a three-week visit with her parents, the Duncan Hammers of Walnut Lake Road.

Gail Bewick, daughter of the Thomas Bewicks of Kingsmill Drive, returned Monday from a 10-day visit with Mr. and Mrs. Mott Heath of Dearborn at their cottage near Reed City.

DAVID AND CAROL Wright of Pekin, Ill., spent two weeks with their grandparents, the Green Johnsons of Loeb Leonard Drive, while their parents, Dr. and Mrs. Nelson A. Wright, III, vacationed on Prince Edward Island. The Wrights rejoined their family Saturday.

The Robert Carveys and Bobby of Raven Court returned Monday from a four-day stay at Sage

Engaged

A solemn betrothal ceremony for Geraldine Zipay of Royal Oak and Michael E. Day of Beverly Hills was performed by the bride-elect's uncle, Fr. John E. Zipay at the Shrine of the Little Flower. The engagement has been announced by Geraldine's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Stephen A. Zipay. Michael is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry E. Day. He is a graduate of Seaholm High and attends Lawrence Institute of Technology. Geraldine was graduated from Mercy College, Detroit, and is a psychiatric nurse at Sinai Hospital.

Lake where they were the guests of Mrs. Charles Brown.

WENDY NAHABEDIAN, daughter of the John Nahabedian of Walnut Lake Road, is in Ann Arbor for freshman week before her University of Michigan classes start on Monday.

Mr. Nahabedian, who was with the Detroit Board of Education for 27 years, most recently as a social studies teacher at Mackenzie High, will start a new job next month as assistant professor of education at the University of Detroit. He will supervise student teachers in social studies.

MRS. STANLEY J. Rapais of Eastmore Road, as president, heads the new slate of officers of the Women of St. Owen. Serving as vice president is Mrs. William Brown; recording secretary, Mrs. Joseph E. Grinnan; corresponding secretary, Mrs. William Damman; and treasurer, Mrs. Walter Smetek.

OTHER RETURNING vacationers include the George Hedges family of Publeshire Road who have returned from Diamond Lake.

Their neighbors, the Dan Wagners and James Costello, also vacationing up north spent a day with them.

THE EUGENE Bulgazny family of Long Lake Shores Drive is back from a week's stay at Thunderbird Mountain Club in the Great Smoky Mountains of North Carolina.

MR. AND MRS. JACK Ware of Sutters Lane were in the East on a short trip during which they stopped off in Wilmington, Del., for a visit with former neighbors, the George Reasors.

Lynn Roark has returned from a two-week stay at Westminster Camp on Higgins Lake. Her brother, Mayford, arrived home last week from Camp Hiawatha in Comins, Mich., where he had spent the summer.

They are the children of the Mayford Roarks of Raven Road.
