

New York for Honeymoon

Following their wedding Saturday, Mr. and Mrs. John Michael Losonsky spent a week honeymooning in New York City and Boston.

The bride is the former Karen Dorothy Bliss, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Everett G. Bliss, 4260 Orchard Hill, Bloomfield Hills. The bridegroom of Rosford, O., is the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Losonsky.

The double ring ceremony was at noon on Saturday at Saint Thomas Moore, Bloomfield Hills. The bride wore a gown of silk organza over bridal taffeta with a controlled bell skirt with an apron front of Alencon lace. She carried white sweetheart roses with stephanotis.

CAROL CANFIELD of Ferrysburg, O., was the maid of honor. She wore a floor length dress of azure blue taffeta overlaid with white cotton acet. The bridesmaids included Judy Starret, Melbourne Beach, Fla.; Karen Hastings, St. St. Joseph, Mich.; Allura Hitchcock, Detroit; and Mrs. Dotti Thumler, Evanston, Ill.

Serving as best man was Denis M. Robison of Rosford, O., and seating the guests were Thomas LoDico, Detroit; Ted Walton, Detroit; Robert Bliss, Bloomfield Hills; and Urban Canfield, Ferrysburg, O. An evening reception was held at the Hillcrest Country Club in Mt. Clemens, Mich. The couple will make their home in Warren, Mich.

B'ham Altrusas Induct Members

The Altrusa Club of greater Birmingham added three new members to its roster at the semi-monthly meeting in the Birmingham House Monday night.

The three Birmingham people inducted into membership were Dr. Nanette J. Jagnow, 776 Ridgedale, pediatrician of the Kemp Clinic of Birmingham; Mrs. Walter J. Reason, 515 Aspen, director of the adoption department of Oakland County Probate Court; and Mrs. Harry Heutter, 7155 Wing Lake, owner of the Franklin Hardware Store in Franklin.

Other business of the meeting was concerned with plans for Altrusa's sponsorship of the premiere Detroit performance of Franz Lehár's "The Merry Widow" featuring Patrice Munsel Sept. 21 in the Fisher Theater.

Have You Met

Former residents of Bronxville, N. Y., Mr. and Mrs. Glenn H. Jahnke! They are living at 969 Hickory Heights Dr. and have a son, Brian, 2, and a daughter, Susan, 10 months. They are no strangers to the Midwest, for Mr. Jahnke attended the University of Wisconsin and his wife went to Marquette U. in Milwaukee where she majored in dental hygiene.

Couple Wed In Double Ring Ceremonies

A double ring ceremony Saturday in the Community Congregational Church in Lathrup Village united Marilyn Kay Plumtree and Douglas Oscar Neff.

Parents of the newweds are Mr. and Mrs. Alvin B. Plumtree, 5255 Kellen Lane, Bloomfield Hills, and Mr. and Mrs. Oscar I. Neff of Dearborn.

The bride wore a silk organza over taffeta Empire gown, enhanced with Alencon lace at the waistline and on the A-line skirt. Her chapel train was wattle-inspired, and her veil of imported silk illusion was secured to a cluster of silk organza petals. She carried a cascade of gardenias and white roses.

WEARING IDENTICAL floor-length gowns designed with white linen skirts and blue linen bodices were maid of honor Ann Plumtree, sister of the bride; Mrs. Ronald Ross, Mrs. Spencer Soper and Mrs. Peter Secchia, bridesmaids. They carried blue carnations and pink sweetheart roses. Courtney Neff, a brother of the groom, served as best man. Ushers were Joe Penrod, Jon Osterag, Martin Cicchelli, Richard Morrison and John Dempsey. A church reception followed the 4 p.m. ceremony.

Following a wedding trip to New York State, the couple will make their home in Melvindale.

Troth Told

Rev. and Mrs. Robert Bracey of Lebanon, N.H., announce the engagement of their daughter, Janice Ruth, to James Lyman Hall, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Hall of Detroit and formerly of Redding Road, Birmingham. The bride-elect is a senior at Kenka College, and her fiancé is a graduate of Dartmouth College and will enter the University of Michigan Medical School in the fall. The wedding is planned for June in New Hampshire.
