Newlyweds Greet Guests At Garden Reception

Wearing a self-designed wedding gown, Marilyn Phillips Krueger became the bride of John J. Evans on Aug. 15 at 1 p.m. in the Presbyterian Church in Ferndale.

Parents of the newlyweds are Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Krueger, 18195 Kinross, Birmingham, and Mr. and Mrs. John Evans of Chicago. The bride chose an embroidered white organza over peau de soie gown designed with elbow-length sleeves and a floor-length bell skirt. The waist was enhanced with a back bow and long embroidered streamers which fell to the hem of the dress. A crown of white lace and seed pearls secured her illusion veil, and she carried pheasants and orchids.

THE BRIDE also designed the gown of her matron of honor, Mrs. Charles Emery, who wore pale yellow embroidered organza over white taffeta. Wearing identical gowns in lime green were bridesmaids, Mrs. Robert Law and Mrs. John Erickson. They all wore ivory ring headpieces and carried lime green Fuji mums. Anton F. Tenes served as best man, while ushers were John C. Erickson and R. V. Krueger. Following a garden reception at the bride's home, the couple left for a wedding trip in the Haliburton Highlands, Ont., area. They will make their home in Detroit.

MRS. J. J. EVANS

Ted Shurtleff Surprised On His 40th Birthday

By ELLI BLAUMAN
MI 7-1485

Peg Shurtleff of Sheridan Drive is one woman who can keep a secret as her husband Ted discovered last Friday evening. When he walked into the door he was greeted by friends singing "Happy Birthday" who, unknown to him, were invited to help celebrate his 40th birthday.

The surprise preparations required much lifting around as he was home instead of out of town that week as was originally planned so Peg had a few unenviable moments before party time. Fortunately all went well and he was very surprised.

Party decor included pictures of Ted from childhood on through the present with humorous captions attached and even his baby shoes were in evidence for the occasion.

After dinner the birthday cake was served and that, too, was a surprise as it was a giant cake with his portrait painted on the frosting.

Among the 30 guests were the Vincent Meagthers, O. H. Tiptons, and the George Rafferty's, all of Beverly Hills.

THE WEDDING of their son Dante took the Sam Vannelli of Nixon Road to Cincinnati for three days earlier this month. Dante and Nancy Jane Kayser of Cincinnati were married at the Bellarmine Chapel of Xavier University on Saturday, Aug. 8, and his sister Carla served as bridesmaid while his 14-year-old cousin Stephen was also a member of the wedding party.

Guests from the Detroit area, Beverly Hills and Birmingham attended, among them the Watson Helons and the Al Vannellis. Dante's maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank DeJahn, were also there with other relatives from Chicago.

KEN AND MARGE Brown of Amherst Drive and Chris, Bruce, and Barbara are back from one month at Burt Lake where for pital dietetics in home economics from New York University, succeeds Mrs. Judy Woodyard of Southfield, who has resigned.

The new director, mother of two school-age children, has been active volunteer and Ladies' Day Out participant at Oakland Branch since moving to Royal Oak two years ago from Bethesda, Md.

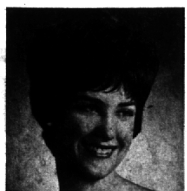

HEATHER Shafer of Birmingham is one of the Camp Cavell girls scheduled to assist at the United Foundation's Health-O-Rama at Northland Aug. 31 through Sept. 5.

Winter Bride

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Bos, 940 Stevens St., Muskegon, announce the engagement of their daughter, Ann Meredith, to William James McKennie, son of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew McKennie, 15904 Buckingham, Birmingham. The couple are seniors at Ferris State College, where the bride-elect is a member of Alpha Gamma Delta sorority. A Dec. 5 wedding in Muskegon is planned.

June Rites

Mr. and Mrs. Ben W. Badenoch of 1912 Bayou Drive, Orchard Lake, announce the engagement of their daughter, Donna Leah, to Boyd R. Mayhew of 388 N. Williamsbury, Birmingham. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George Mayhew. Miss Badenoch attends Michigan State University where she will be a senior. Her fiancé is attending Western Michigan University. A June, 1965 wedding is being planned.
