Tax Fighter Goes After Court Post

BY PATRICK JARVIS
EASTERN MICHIGAN NEWS SERVICE

FLINT — A judge who has been called a "one-man army" against city income taxes is seeking election to the new Michigan Court of Appeals.

Judge Donald R. Freeman, a member of Flint's Municipal Court, successfully led the fight against an income tax that would have put an additional burden on the paychecks of city residents and those who live in the suburbs.

FREEMAN

It was Judge Freeman's contention that such a tax was illegal, and his group not only defeated it in an election, but also carried a fight to the Michigan Supreme Court after the Flint City Commission had passed it over the voters' veto.

Judge Freeman's fight not only was successful, but the voters were given a sudden windfall — the refund of more than two million dollars after the court victory.

Judge Freeman's entire career has been marked by his fighting for the rights of the average consumer and voter.

He has been a constant foe of consumer frauds and juvenile delinquency, and has been honored for his work in both fields.

Voters who would like to see this kind of judge on the new Appeals Court bench are urged to cast their ballots for Judge Donald R. Freeman, who seeks election in the primary here.

These voters can find his name on the non-partisan ballot and can help promote this man — a judge who is known as a fighter for the people.

Tops for college: a wardrobe of Hadley sweaters for the Peck & Peck Girl

The basic element of the college formula starts with the "in" look of sweaters by Hadley, famous for their easy-fitting ways and their painstaking attention to every detail. Three here, from a new collection in the Marchpique colours that you'll find only at Peck & Peck.

Left: The cashmere cardigan in a new Hadley texture: very soft to the touch, yet just a bit heavier to achieve a jacket look. New, too, the wide flat banding, buttoned with genuine mother-of-pearl. Douglas blue, Gleneagles green or Heather purple. 34 to 40, 30.00

Center: Easy to get into this cashmere pullover: it zips down the back. Dressier note: a y-cutout below the slip-tie neckline. Glamis gold, Douglas blue or white. 34 to 40, 30.00

Right: Cardigan with prettily detailed little collar in "Caprice," Hadley's kitten-soft blend of lambswool/angora yarns. Heather purple, Aberdeen green or bone. 34 to 40, 18.00
