

Dormitory Draft-Dodgers

Toasty warm knits for the dorm in delicate shades of porcelain pink or Wedgwood blue are priceless for the budget-minded college girl. (Left to right): A cardigan pajama with a floral scroll is priced about $7, the "Tom Jones" nightgown with white eyelid ruffles at $6, and the striped "sweater set" at $6. By M. C. Schrank.

Engaged

At a cocktail party given in their home Friday, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Burgess of Devon Lane, Birmingham, announced the engagement of their daughter, Carol Ann, to James A. Halstead, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Halstead of Ithaca, N. Y. Carol is a graduate of Seasholm High School and is presently a senior at Michigan State University where she is affiliated with Kappa Delta Sorority. Her fiancé is a graduate of MSU and is now an ensign in the U.S. Navy. The couple plans a June wedding.

The first educational college in the United States was Oberlin College. In 1835 the college announced, "Young ladies attend recitations with young gentlemen in all the departments."

BLOOMFIELD WEST

Beatnik Party Attended By Braes Three Teens

By ELIZABETH VAN LOAN
MI 7-2324

Teen-age residents of Braes Three held a beatnik party at the peat pond in the subdivision Saturday night.

Mrs. James Martin, social chairman, was assisted by teenagers Candy Spriggle, Marian Swantek, Tom Lindamood, and Barbara and Jack Buchman.

A NEW YEAR has started for the Brookfield Highlands Garden Club. Members met Monday at the home of Mrs. Leo Seidl on Turner Road and brought blooms from their own gardens for their annual flower show.

Mrs. Eugene Zellen and Mrs. John T. Marshall served as co-hostesses.

TWENTY GIRLS of Junior Girl Scout Troop 512 returned Monday from a four-day stay at Camp Narrin in Ortonville. They were accompanied by their leader, Mrs. Donald Freed; assistant leader, Mrs. James Connel; camper, Mrs. Mason Lindamood; and Mrs. Hazel Heinzelman.

MR. AND MRS. Peter Laslo Koenig, she's the daughter of the Ira Weavers of Kilbrennan Road) are in Peterborough, N.H., where Peter has been working under a grant at the MacDowell Colony since Aug. 1. The Koenigs who were married on July 11 will leave sometime this month for a year of study and painting in Poland.

THE PAST two years have been eventful ones for Mrs. Gerald Wayne Lile, daughter of the John Quinns of Fieldbrook Road. She met her husband two years ago when she was a freshman at Central Michigan University and he was her student adviser.

Their marriage in the college chapel in May, 1963, was followed by a year in Kalamazoo where he was counselor, government teacher and basketball coach at Gobles High School.

Last month, Kathy, Gerald and their infant daughter, Barbara Lynn, flew to Honolulu and their new home on the campus of the fabulous Kamehameha Schools. Gerald's new post is boys' counselor there.

THE "KAM" Schools (kindergarten through high school) for children of Hawaiian blood were endowed by a Hawaiian princess and, according to Time Magazine, have a bigger endowment than any other private school in the U.S.

The location is on a 500-acre hillside site complete with swimming pool and tennis courts, and having a sweeping view of Honolulu from Diamond Head to Pearl Harbor.

President James Bushong, another Michigander, heads the institution. He was formerly superintendent of schools in Grose Pointe.

The Jock Gunn family of Quanton Road returned Aug. 18 from a five-week stay in Nassau, Bahamas, where they were the guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Brown.

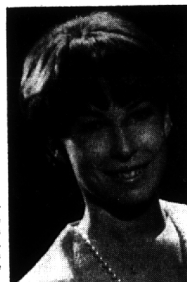

A LONG vacation was also enjoyed by the John Brinks of Woodwind Drive who spent six weeks in the East, part of the time at Kennebunkport, Me., and the remainder with relatives in Boxford, Mass.

Other returning vacationers include the Edward Russell family of Raven Road who returned Saturday from a two-week stay at Fireside Inn on Grand Lake.

ALSO HOME on Saturday, from a cottage on Pickers Lake in Newaygo, were the James Walters of Priory Lane. The three Walter children had the company of their cousins, Kelly, Kimberly and Donald Walter.

The arrival of John Patrick on Aug. 21 rounds out the Walters family to three boys and three girls. Proud parents are Mr. and Mrs. Paul Walters of Kingsmill Drive.
