ATTENDS WORKSHOP
Murray Stewart of Waddington Road, Birmingham, was one of 600 undergraduate delegates attending the 17th annual Leadership Training Workshop of the Sigma Chi Fraternity on the campus of Ball State College, Aug. 28-31.

He is a junior at Miami University and a member of the Sigma Chi chapter there, of which he is rush chairman.

The four-day program, which attracted Sigma Chi from the fraternity's 138 campus chapters in 41 states of the U.S. and four provinces of Canada, involved delegates in lectures, panels and discussions on ideas and methods for outstanding operations, activities and scholarship.

PURDUE GRADUATES
Purdue University has mailed certificates of graduation to 294 students who completed their studies during the summer session.

The graduates include two Birmingham residents. They are William Edward Koehler, 4416 Far Hill Drive, B.S. in industrial management; and Robert Moray 2429 Fairway Drive, M.S. in civil health, 2429 Fairway Drive, M.S. in civil engineering.

THIRD IN LINE

Spencer T. Rogers, 559 Half Moon Road, Bloomfield Village, a freshman, is the third generation of his family to attend the University of Michigan.

He was preceded by Mrs. Spencer R. Hershey, his mother; Arthur D. Spencer, grandfather; and his sister, Gail Rogers, a senior who is in charge of orientation.

STUDY ABROAD

Marilyn Garabrant, 3557 Shallow Brook Drive, Bloomfield Hills, will study in Europe under the Sweet Briar Program for Junior Year in France. She is the only girl from this state participating in the program.

From 48 colleges and universities, 104 young men and women sailed last Thursday on the Mauretania for study in Tours and Paris, France.

Marilyn has an honors student at Sweet Briar College during her first two years adding extra honors in drama. In addition to courses at the Sorbonne, she will take a theater course which will offer weekly visits to the theaters of Paris and courses at the Institut d'Etudes Politiques of the University of Paris—the only center of its kind in the world of international affairs.

Her stay in Paris includes living with a French family during the sojourn there. Upon arrival in France, she will be welcomed by her sister, Sarah Dale Garabrant, who will have completed a business trip to the Mediterranean basin for her firm, FRICK-International.

AWARDED SCHOLARSHIP

John C. Kinsel, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry B. Kinsel, 30655 Poblacion Court, Birmingham, was one of six students awarded a college scholarship at the annual Awards Dinner of the William B. Chase Foundation Aug. 26. He is a sophomore at MSU.

William Chase, president of Shatterproof Glass Corp., and foundation founder, personally congratulated each student while making the scholarship presentation. The scholarships are on a yearly renewal basis and provide supplemental financial aid based on academic requirements and standing.

FOREIGN STUDY

Charles Morse, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Morse, 2840 Bolingbroke, Birmingham, and Marylu Simmons, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Simmons, 2051 Squirrel Road, Bloomfield Hills, are among 140 Kalamazoo College juniors who will leave this month for two quarters of study abroad.

Charles will sail for Europe and study in Muenster, Germany. Marylu will study at the Institute for American Universities in Aix-en-Provence, France.

Garden Group To Hold Fair

Bloomfield Hills Branch, WNGA, will hold a Fall Fair Sept. 14 at noon in the home of Mrs. George I. Goodwin of 3395 E. Pointe Lane. Proceeds will go to the scholarship fund.

Home baked goods, plants, produce and other items will stock booths, and, following a picnic lunch, G. S. Baker will give a talk entitled "Mr. Grow It All".

Mrs. Rodney M. Lockwood and Mrs. Edward R. Davies are co-chairmen of the fair. Working with them are committee heads Mrs. Lawrence R. Hafstad, Mrs. Leonard A. Wineman, Mrs. Walter A. Guthrie and Mrs. Howard C. McDonald.

Health-O-Rama Walkers

Wearing new jumper outfits monogrammed with the WUF symbol, hostesses Mrs. John L. Sterling (left) and Mrs. John J. Conlon, both of Birmingham, strolled the Northland Center malls last week distributing programs. The leaflets invited shoppers to visit the United Foundation's Health-O-Rama on the center's main plaza. Red monograms decorate the V-neck blue jumpers, designed especially for Women of the United Foundation (WUF) members to wear during their official UF activities. Mrs. Sterling was chairman of 25 hostesses who served each day at the Health-O-Rama.

Phelps Family Home From Trip

The J. Robert Phelps family of W. Rutland, Beverly Hills, returned Aug. 30 from a trip to New York City, where they headquartered at the New York Hilton.

Mrs. Phelps and 11-year-old Jeff traveled by train to the city and did some sightseeing before Mr. Phelps flew down to join them.

William T. Stelzer Wed In Grand Rapids Rites

A wedding trip to the Virgin Islands followed the 11 a.m. marriage rites Saturday that united Susan Jean Enbody and William Thomas Stelzer at the St. Thomas Apostolic Church in Grand Rapids.

Parents of the newlyweds are Mr. and Mrs. Orval G. Enbody of Grand Rapids, and Mr. and Mrs. William Stelzer, 4351 Franklin Road, Bloomfield Hills.

The bride wore an ankle-length champagne gown of peau de soie enhanced with a silk fringe bordering bodice designed with pearl embroidery. Accenting the chapel train was the headpiece, a beaded toque securing a pouf veil which extended to chapel length. She carried a cascade of gardenias and ivory garlands.

MRS. W. T. STELZER

velvet, and carried white fugi mums and croton.

David Hergott of Birmingham assisted the bridegroom as best man. Ushers were 2nd Lt. Paul B. Trost of Kankakee, Ill., and Gerald P. Foley of Plainfield, N.J.
