Ingrid Becker Wed To W. P. Bartlam

Puerto Rico was the honeymoon destination of Mr. and Mrs. William Porter Bartlam following their double ring rites noon Saturday at the Lutheran Church of the Redeemer in Detroit.

The bride is the former Ingrid Janet Becker, daughter of Mrs.

MRS. W. P. BARTLAM

Otto K. Becker, 3637 Waldo Drive, Bloomfield Hills. Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Bartlam of Detroit.

The bride wore a Banchi gown of ivory dulcette satin fashioned with a scoop neck, elbow-length sleeves and a modified bell skirt

Sorority Plans First Meeting

The first fall meeting of Birmingham-area alumnae of Alpha Chi Omega Sorority will take place Sept. 15 at 12:30 p.m. in the Farmington home of Mrs. William J. Thompson. Potluck luncheon will be served.

Mrs. James B. Johnson is chairman of the event, with Mrs. Robert B. Kline, president of the local chapter and delegate to the national convention during the summer, the guest speaker. She will describe convention highlights.

Mrs. E. T. Burroughs of Birmingham, recently appointed district alumnae chairman, will be honored at the meeting.

MRS. J. M. CORLEY

Bridal Pair Will Live In Ohio

Rada Marie Youngblood, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Howard Youngblood of Orchard Ridge Road, Bloomfield Hills, walked up the aisle of St. Hugo of the Hills Saturday to become the bride of James Michael Corley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas L. Corley of Cleveland, O.

The bride wore a gown of white peau de soie accented by Brussels lace embroidered in tiny seed pearls. Her veil of silk illusion fell from a headpiece fashioned of the same lace and she carried a bouquet of white gardenias and ivy.

MRS. ALLEN BIEHL, of Pontiac, wearing floor-length willow green satin, was matron of honor and bridesmaids, who were gowned in gold satin, included Judy West of Hammond Lake and Linda Ray of Pontiac. Jill Ann Youngblood was her sister's flower girl.

Thomas D. Corley was his brother's best man, and seating the guests were Ronald Gluch of Cleveland and James Youngblood, Jr., brother of the bride.

Following a reception at the Village Woman's Club, the couple left on a wedding trip, after which they will make their home in Rocky River, O.

Brookside Hears Panel Program

Brookside Garden Club met recently in the home of Mrs. T. L. Harris, Hickory Heights, Birmingham. Mrs. Adolphe Marguer was chairman of a potpourri quiz program with panelists. An open discussion regarding plants and soil followed.

Hostessing for the day were Mrs. William R. McClure, Mrs. M. A. Calbi and Mrs. F. Milton Hathaway. Guests attending were Mrs. Monroe Osmun and Mrs. Nelson K. Hunter.

Plans for the annual scholarship bridge, to be held Oct. 22 at Edgewood Country Club, were announced.

which ended in a chapel train. Applauds of reembodying aloncelace enhanced the skirt and bodice.

A FULL-LENGTH mantilla of imported rose pointe lace completed the ensemble, and she carried a cascade of white roses and ivy.

Carol Handline of Birmingham served as honor attendant, while bridesmaids were Susan Jordan of Orchard Lake, Maria Kountoupes of Detroit, Mary Lou Benzel of East Aurora, N. Y., and Diane Schmidt of Jefferson, N. Y.

They wore full-length gowns of willow green satin; their headpieces were matching satin rosettes with maline veiling. They carried a cascade of deep yellow roses.

Lynda Lee Avery, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Avery, served as flower girl; James A. Johnson, son of Mr. and Mrs. James A. Johnson Jr., acted as ring bearer.

ASSISTING THE bridegroom as best man was Kenneth Pierce of Detroit. Ushers were Thomas Newkirk of New York City, William Frick, Northbrook, Ill., Frederick Hatch, New Orleans, La., and Esel Bailey Jr., of Garden City.

For the half-act reception held at the bride's home, the mother of the bride wore a Sophie costume of beige cloque matelasse, and the mother of the groom was attired in a classic sheath of turquoise brocade.

A rehearsal dinner for members of the wedding party was given by parents of the bridegroom at Fox & Hounds Inn Friday evening.

The newlyweds will make their home in Elmira, N. Y.
