

Janet Kay Taisey Wed In Presbyterian Church

At a ceremony solemnized Aug. 25 in Southfield United Presbyterian Church, Janet Kay Taisey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Taisey of Southfield, spoke her marriage vows to William Marvin Craft, son of Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Craft of West Hurley, N. Y.

The bride wore a floor-length linen sheath for her wedding, the gown accented by a Venise lace trim and Watteau train. Her cloud veil was secured to a pillbox of matching lace, and she carried fugi mums.

CONNIE TAISEY was her sister's honor maid and Colleen Sa-bino of Ferndale was the only other attendant. They both wore floor-length gowns of green, fashioned along Empire lines, and carried bronze fugi mums.

Bruce Bishop of Kingston, N.Y., was best man, and seating the guests were Charles Zub of New Jersey and Bruce Horner of Ferndale.

Following a reception at the church, a buffet was served in the home of the bride's parents, after which the couple left for Lake George, N. Y.

Danns Celebrate 20th Anniversary in Maryland

By GLORIA JESSUP
MA 6-3557

If you are a resident of Bloomfield Hills, Ocean City, Md., seems like a long way to go to celebrate an anniversary. But Mr. and Mrs. Richard R. Damm of Lakewood Road didn't think so since they were going "home", so to speak.

The Damm family, consisting of Mr. and Mrs. Danna and Gerri, settled for a short time in Knob Hill and then moved into their new home on Lakewood recently.

The Danns and their two daughters just returned from Ocean City where they celebrated their 20th anniversary with Mr. and Mrs. Hamill Jones and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Rogers (who incidentally were both also celebrating anniversaries).

OTHER AREA returnees include Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Caffero with Clay, 3, and Ann, 1. They returned to their Burning Tree Drive home after a trip to Cape Cod and two days at the World's Fair.

They also enjoyed visits with Mr. Caffero's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Caffero, on Long Island and Mr. and Mrs. Edwin A. Barnard, Mrs. Caffero's parents of Boston.

Another Burning Tree Drive family, the Robert Asmanns, left our cool, rainy clime for three weeks in sunny Florida, they returned last week with their children, Betty, Chuck and Tom after a vacation spent touring Washington, D. C., Williamsburg, and Ormond Beach, Fla.

THE EAST seemed to attract residents of Still Meadow this year. Also joining the ranks of travellers were Jean and Joe Atkins, with Tom, Mike and Danny. They traveled through Massachusetts and Cape Cod for one week on what Jean jokingly called, "an enforced culture tour."

Back in their Burning Tree Drive home they welcomed Mr. and Mrs. Joe True (Jean's brother-in-law and sister) and their three children, Jenny, Pat and Jay. The True family arrived last Friday and returned to their Bloomington, Ind., home following the Labor Day week end.

MR. AND MRS. KURT Bahle and daughter, Jane, were the recent houseguests of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Tuller of Lakewood Road, Chalmers Lake. The Bahles are from Webster Groves, Mo., and have returned home following a three-day visit with the Tullers.

Another recent house guest of the Tullers was former resident, Bob Jocelyn, son of Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Jocelyn formerly of Lakewood Road, now of Hawaii. Bob spent eight days as guests of the Tullers while he renewed friendships on the "mainland."

MRS. D. A. BRUCE

Niagara Falls Trip Follows Evening Rites

A reception at the Bloomfield Open Hunt Club followed the evening marriage of Lynda Clare Replogle to Douglas Arthur Bruce Saturday at the Drayton Avenue Presbyterian Church.

Parents of the newlyweds are Mr. and Mrs. Allan D. Replogle of Huntington Woods and Mr. and Mrs. John Bruce of Yorktown Heights, N.Y.

Alencon medallions were applied on the redingote worn over the bride's Bianchi silk peau de soie gown designed in the empire silhouette. Silk and pearl incrustated petals made up the headpiece which secured the French illusion veil. She carried ivy stephanotis and white orchids.

WEARING WHITE embroidered organza over Nile green taffeta gowns were the maid of honor, Judith Gorsuch of Birmingham, and attendants, Beverly Bruce, sister of the groom, and Mrs. Barbara Thomas of Royal Oak.

Dennis Bruce, twin brother of the groom, served as best man. Ushers were Ronald Replogle, Dale Numelin, Neil Oldham and Robert McDonald.

The couple honeymooned in Niagara Falls and will make their home in East Lansing.

Sally Jane Hanson Weds David Redfearn Calhoun

Sally Jane Hanson and David Redfearn Calhoun spoke their marriage vows Saturday in Covenant Baptist Church, Detroit, after which a reception was given in the Fellowship Hall of the church.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lee D. Hanson of Chapin St., Birmingham, and her husband's parents are the Donald B. Calhouns of Evanston, Ill.

BRIDAL ROBES combined white silk organza over taffeta, highlighted by an Alencon lace yoke and apron and a chapel train. A flower petal cap held the short veil of silk illusion, and she carried white roses and stephanotis.

Margery Calhoun of Ann Arbor, sister of the bridegroom, was maid of honor, and Mrs. Gerald T. Vasek of Wellfleet, Mass., and Mrs. Howard N. Owen of Pontiac, both sisters of the bride, were bridesmaids.

They all wore cielo blue sateen and carried white roses interspersed with tea roses.

Donald B. Calhoun, Jr., of Brookfield, Wis., was best man, and seating the guests were Lee C. Hanson of Cincinnati, O., brother of the bride, and Peter Deane of Berkeley.

FOLLOWING A WEDDING trip through New England, the couple will make their home in Evanston, where the bride will continue in graduate school at Northwestern University.
