

LATHRUP-CRANBROOK VILLAGE

Plan Hats of Flowers, Fruit—Weeds (?)

By GLORIA JESSUP
MA 6-3257

Have you ever been invited to a party or received a notice to a meeting and wondered what on earth you were going to wear?

Well, haven't we all at one time or another?

However, the first meeting of the 1964-65 season of the Cranbrook Village north branch, WNFPA, gives its members lots of leeway. Each member is asked to wear a hat of flowers, fruit, vegetables or weeds grown over the summer.

And, this must include just everyone, (those weeds would include me even though I'm not a member of the group).

This, the first meeting, will be held at the Northgate Road home of Mrs. Fred Thaldorf on Sept. 14.

LABOR DAY found the members of the Cranbrook Country

Neighborhood Notes From Peggy

By MRS. J. F. HAMILTON
MI 6-2532

The William M. Dickinson family moved back from Idaho Falls, Id., to their home at 1540 Bowers last week. The Dickinsons, transferred to Idaho Falls three years ago, knew they would return so rented their home on Bowers and subscribed to the "Detroit Free Press" to keep in touch. They arrived in town in time to enroll Mary K. at Mercy College, Detroit; Patty, 14, at Marion High School and Billy, 8, at Holy Name. Plans for Mike, 18, are incomplete. Mr. Dickinson is with Giffels and Rosetti.

New neighbors at 1750 Bowers are Mr. and Mrs. Mox O. Ambis. Mr. Ambis teaches English and science at Berkshire Junior High School. He is in familiar territory here, having recently taught hand at Troy, Penbrook and Derby for two years. The Ambis, who moved here from Utica, have three children, Charles E. Kathy, 2 and Cheryl, six months.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Patzick and their four children of Pittsburgh, Pa., were houseguests of Mr. and Mrs. Charles R. Gates, 1628 Hazel, for five days recently. The Patzicks, former neighbors of the Gates, called on old friends while here and introduced their six-month-old daughter, Lora Beth.

MR. AND MRS. John D. Kale and family are settled in their new home, 2990 Sunridge, Gaslight Town, Troy. They formerly lived at 1515 Cheltenham, Birmingham.

After Little League season was over, Art Kale spent two weeks at Thunderbird Sports Camp, Baldwin, Mich., kept in shape participating in a variety of sports including calisthenics, swimming, cross country, track, football, basketball and baseball. Mr. and Mrs. Ted Giles, 1569 E. Lincoln, have returned from a trip to Chataqua Lake, N.Y., where they attended a convention. On their way home they stopped at Niagara Falls.

Club enjoying a final dip into pool (unless the weather is unseasonably warm and then the pool will remain open).

Games and various water events were planned for the younger set followed by the adults taking over the club for a steak roast in the evening and then dancing to the Buckingham Trio.

THE DONALD KUNTZMANS are getting situated in their new home on Hampton Road in Beverly Hills. Before departing Cranbrook Village they were honored at a patio dinner party given by Mr. and Mrs. Donald Casson of Spring River Drive.

Attending the farewell affair were Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Bonnamia, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Manning, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Slivinsky and Mr. and Mrs. Dale Kuntzman.

For ladies only was the "coffee" given by Mrs. Joseph Slivinsky in honor of Mrs. Kuntzman. About a dozen neighbors attended.

MR. AND MRS. BURLIN Ackles of Glenwood, Lathrup Village, spent the Labor Day weekend at their summer home on Harpers Island. They were accompanied by their children, Betty and Brud and house guest Leslie Russell, also of Lathrup Village.

Following the Labor Day week end with his parents, Brud will leave on Sept. 15 for his senior year at Albion College. He returned only recently after spending the summer in Europe with the Albion European College Tour, consisting of 35 students.

LITTLE SUZANNE Heist missed the World's Fair. She will not know the difference for about a decade and by then she will be looking forward to another "Fair."

Eight-month-old Suzanne stayed with Grandma and Grandpa Meitzler of Reading, Pa., while her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. Elton Heist and older brother, Bob and older sister, Michele went to the Fair.

All of this activity came about while the Heist family was on a two-week vacation visiting Mrs. Heist's family, the Charles Meitzlers. They returned last week to their Northgate Drive home.

ALSO, DOING the Fair, was the George Cummings family of Hickory Leaf Lane. Mr. and Mrs. Cummings and their three children visited with Mrs. Cummings parents in New Jersey for two weeks. During their stay they went to the Fair, got in some golfing and took time out to see the Pokonow Mountains.

Wilderness State Park was "home" base for the Robert Hawkes family of Pleasant Trail on their recent 10-day camping trip.

From their Apache tent camp site at Wilderness State Park they branched off and rode tandem bikes around Mackinac Island, visited Tackemung Falls and the two forts. They were accompanied by John, 7, and Cathy, 6.

TODAY, The ladies who man two bridge tables, will resume their luncheon meetings followed by bridge. They will be guests of Mrs. James Hamburg of Spring River Drive, Cranbrook Village.

The ladies laughingly call themselves the "afternoon eating society," but—let's face it, we have all but thrown away our usual recipes and taken up only the reading of the calendar book. Don't begrudge the ladies a little freedom once a month.

MR. AND MRS. JAMES Pombelton of Lathrup Blvd. recently welcomed into their home, foreign exchange student, Jorgen Johansson of Karl-Charg, Sweden.

Jorgen left a sister and a brother back in Sweden when he came to the United States but he gained the same in the Pombelton family. He will be a senior at Southfield High School this week and will continue his interest in science.

Dr. and Mrs. Kurt Pfister of Coral Gables, Lathrup Village, also welcomed a new daughter who will be a senior at Southfield High School, Alida Ferand of Rokenburg, Germany, left her three sisters to join the Pfister family consisting of Kurt (Dusty), Barry, Sandy and Pam.

THE LATHRUP WOMEN'S Club will begin their activities on Sept. 16 with a pool and patio dinner party at the Wilshire Blvd home of Mrs. Joseph Slavik.

Mrs. David Brown and Mrs. Roger Smith will be cohostesses for the affair which begins at 12:30 p.m.

MR. AND MRS. LEON Hagemann recently moved into their new home on Southgate, Cranbrook Village. They are former residents of Detroit. They have three married daughters and are the proud grandparents of six lively grandchildren.

Mr. Hagemann is a sales engineer for Macomber Detroit Sales Co. Mrs. Hagemann is a registered nurse. They are members of St. Bede's parish.

Mrs. Hagemann was welcomed recently at a coffee given in her honor by Mrs. Robert Yanoos and Mrs. Benjamin Wells at the Yanoos home.

Attending were Mesdames Roger Tysan, Donald Boswell, Mrs. Robert Yanoos, William Bilyeau, George Schmidt and Ed Kelly.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bailey and son, Charles and Mrs. Ann O'Brien all of Pittsburgh, Pa., are currently the house guests of the Leon Hagemanns.

MR. AND MRS. THOMAS Sauer are newcomers at 20851 Rock Creek, Cranbrook Village. They moved from Royal Oak just two months ago. Mathew, 2½, and Christopher, 1½, rounded out the family.

Mr. Sauer is student scholar-ship co-ordinator for the Highland Park Board of Education. He attended Eastern Michigan University, received his masters from Wayne University and is currently working on his doctorate at Michigan State University.

Mrs. Sauer attended Marygrove and is a graduate home economics teacher.

Mrs. Bonnie Parks, Mrs. Ethel Schmidt, Mrs. Shirley Boswell, Mrs. Betty Rollinger and Mrs. Jackie Yanoos were on hand at the bon voyage luncheon given recently by Mrs. Benjamin Wells and Mrs. Roger Tysan in honor of their neighbor, Mrs. Clifford Raymond.

Bloomfield Engineer Helps Put Show on the Road

A gala Hollywood-style world premiere party will be staged in Detroit Friday, with members of the Detroit Athletic Club, the Detroit Club and the Standard Club invited.

The black tie premiere of the motion picture, "The Living Set," is to be at the Adams Theater, with proceeds going to the Junior Achievement Club of Southeastern Michigan. Dinners before and an after-theater party are on the docket. Curtain is at 8:45 p.m.

Detroit was chosen for this world presentation because the film's big feature is the gas turbine experimental automobile developed by George J. Huebner, Jr., of Bloomfield Hills, Chrysler Corporation's executive engineer. Mr. Huebner is in charge of Chrysler's development and research section. The picture is built around automobiles and the young people involved in today's automotive development and racing (romance too, of course).

Delta Zeta alumnae will meet Tuesday, Sept. 15, for a general meeting at the home of Mrs. Forbes S. Hascall, 946 Pine Hill, Bloomfield Hills, at 8 p.m.

"That Was the Year That Was" is the theme of the meeting, and Mrs. Laurence E. Trevarrow, Jr., president, will report on the convention awards won by the Oakland group. Main speaker of the evening will be Mrs. Russell T. Costello, Orchard Lake, who will speak on "American citizenship."

A SMORGASBORD dessert will highlight the evening and co-hostesses who will contribute their culinary specialties are Mrs. Donald C. Burch and Mrs. Marc L. Hagerman of Birmingham; Mrs. Albert G. Lucas and Mrs. Frederick Supnick of Royal Oak and Mrs. Robert A. Hutton and Mrs. Ralph LaParl of Utica.

Miss Phyllis Stapleton, Royal Oak, has designed nametags for the evening and Mrs. Carlie W. Ross, Royal Oak, will present a bulletin board picturing the Delta Zeta achievements of the past year.

A few of the many from the Birmingham-Bloomfield area with reservations at this club are the Edwin O. Georges, the C. Allen Harlan, the Peter J. Monaghan, the Ralph J. Spessers, Mr. and Mrs. Norman J. Fredericks, the Alfred J. Mackays, the Lee Kentings, the W. A. Prews, the John Flannery, the John D. McBrians, the Louis M. Millons, the Daniel Packard, Dr. and Mrs. Paul W. Trimmer.

MR. AND MRS. Huebner will be honor guests in a group at the Standard Club, headed by President David P. Katz and Mrs. Katz.

The Lester L. Colberts, Guy S. Peppiat, Russell A. Swancys, and Robert Andersons were in the large dinner hosted by Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Misch at the Detroit Club.

The Birmingham Eccentric

BIRMINGHAM, MICHIGAN

SEPTEMBER 10, 1964

A generation ago few people ever visioned the time when the age of 65 for a man meant that he would retire from active work—in many cases the retirement would be compulsory. To be sure, most young people of every age hoped for a time when their income would allow them to quit work . . . to be free to go and come as fancy wished. But man is meant to be active, so without interests, hobbies, etc., retirement can be BOREDOME! (GRA)

Glamor Show Plays Part In Symphony Celebration

A fashion show featuring creations of designer Teal Traina will follow a luncheon-meeting of the Women's Association for the Detroit Symphony Orchestra for the Detroit Yacht Club. The fashions, presented by Himehloch Brothers and Co., will be commented by Grace Van Dyke, Fashion Market Editor of Vogue Magazine. The show will be held around "My Fair Lady" fashions. This show is another special event celebrating the golden anniversary season of the Symphony. Steering committee includes Mrs. Charles Himehloch, program chairman; Mrs. Milton Basson and Mrs. Cecil Akroyd, assistant chairmen; Mrs. Russell Bauer, Mrs. Glen Bishy, Mrs. John Ganschow, Mrs. Richard Tucker, Mrs. Joseph Vance, Jr., and Mrs. Murray Young.

An interesting footnote to the planned festivities is the tie-in with the 50th anniversary of the Symphony, as the story of "My Fair Lady" depicts the era of the founding of the Symphony.

Change of Date

The Eastern Star reception to be held Friday honoring Mrs. Henry Bowden has been postponed till a later date.
