Hat and Gift Sale Scheduled Today by Pine Lake WNFGA

By ELIZABETH VAN LOAN
MI 7-2324

It's a sure sign of fall when the various women's clubs reconvene for the start of a new year.

Off in a burst of activity today is the Pine Lake Estates branch, Women's National Farm & Garden Association, holding a hat and gift sale this afternoon for the benefit of the proposed scholarship fund.

Friends and neighbors are invited to look over the merchandise of the Mitchell Greetings Co. of Detroit which will be on display from 1 to 4 p.m. in the home of Mrs. Alan Pfaff, 3512 MacNichol Trail.

A HAT SALE will also follow the regular club meeting scheduled for 8 p.m. tonight at Mrs. Pfaff's.

At the meeting, each member will give a report on the plant she raised, or tried to raise, from seeds ordered from England last spring.

Plants will be exchanged and will include lupine, daisy, delphinium, poppy, primrose and digitalis. The seeds come from Thompson & Morgan, Ipswich.

Cohostesses with Mrs. Pfaff are Mrs. Glenn Smith and Mrs. Louis Zednik.

AN INVITATION to the annual tea for present and prospective members is offered to all women living in the area by the Walnut Lake Women's Club.

Time and place are 1 p.m. next Thursday at the home of the president, Mrs. Walter Gorman, 6221 Darram Road.

Officers of the club will serve on the tea committee.

If you would like to attend, call Mrs. Gorman or Mrs. Courville Morrow of Putnam Drive.

RESIDENTS OF Braes Three are hoping for fair skies this Saturday when they get together for their annual corn roast.

As usual, activities will center around the pea pond, "community center" of the subdivision.

The afternoon from 2 to 5 will be devoted to the children with games, corn on the cob and hot dogs.

The adults will congregate at 7:30 p.m. for the same menu and an evening of games and dancing.

NEWCOMERS' NIGHT for parents and teachers of Pine Lake School to get acquainted will be held Monday evening at 8 in the school's all-purpose room.

P.T.O. officers for the coming year are Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Llewellyn of Interlaken Road in the president's post; Mr. and Mrs. James Braunlich, vice-president; Mr. and Mrs. Paul Goode, secretary; Mr. and Mrs. Richard Armstrong, treasurer; Dr. and Mrs.

Ananda Prasad, hospitality; and Mr. and Mrs. William Grubbs, publicity.

SUSAN QUINN of Fieldbrook will be maid of honor Saturday, the wedding of Charles MacDonald to James Kahn in Midland.

The Clarence Myrlands of Eastmoor Road celebrated Labor Day by inviting friends from Rochester, Northville, Pontiac and Redford for a cookout and swim at Walnut Lake.

TRIPS TO The World's Fair were high on the agenda of late summer vacationers returning the week end before last.

Fairgoers included the Myrlands, the Robert Brinkmans of Bloomfield Glens Road and the Howard Bingham of E. Newland Drive. The Myrlands also spent a week at the Lodi-Lodge, Bay, Ont., with their three youngsters.

THE BINGHAMS were in New Brunswick, N. J., staying on campus at Rutgers University where Mr. Bingham attended an agriculture seminar.

While the men were in classes, the women and children were taken on bus trips to the fair, and also to Sandy Hook (N.J.) State Park where Tom, Pat, John and Sara Bingham had a dip in the Atlantic Ocean.

ALSO HOME are Dr. and Mrs. Courville Morrow and their daughters, Judy and Carol, who made a circle trip through Chicago, Green Bay, Wis. Canada and Oshkosh.

In Green Bay, they visited Mrs. Morrow's mother, Mrs. John T. Enderly, and in Oshkosh, the doctor's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence N. Euff, who own and operate a gift shop, the Red Barn of Oshkosh.

Two nights were spent at the Canadian Soo in order to take the one-day excursion trip by rail to Agawa Canyon through the rugged and beautiful Ontario wilderness.

THE L. W. FORRESTERS of Hedgecroft Drive were in Warren, Mich., for three days last week and had several get-togethers with Mr. and Mrs. Mickey Hargitay who were appearing there in "Gentlemen Prefer Blondes."

The Hargitays, or, if you prefer, Mr. and Mrs. Jayne Mansfield, are now at Northland Playhouse emoting in "Bus Stop."

MRS. OREN Johnson of Loch Lomond Drive gave a miscellaneous shower Aug. 25 honoring Miss Gail Sokup of Detroit, sister
