Doroughts Discover Charm Of Europe's Small Cities

By ELLI BLAUMAN
MI 7-1465

A leisurely two-month tour of Europe occupied much of the summer for Mrs. J. T. Dorought and daughter Mary of Beaconsfield Drive.

This, their first trip to the Continent, took them to England, Holland, Belgium, Germany, Austria, Switzerland, Italy, Monaco, and France but, while they enjoyed Vienna, Rome, Paris, and London, they found they preferred the charm of smaller cities such as Heidelberg, Salzburg, Rothenburg and Interlachen.

As members of an organized tour, they visited Vatican City, saw the changing of the guard at Buckingham Palace, heard the "Blue Danube" played at an outdoor concert in Vienna, took a cable car up 7,000-foot Mt. Pilatus near Lucerne, took in the Swiss National Exposition and shopped everywhere they went.

THOUGH raincoats were worn only three times during their stay, much of their trip involved water. The voyage over and back was made on the liner France; a steamer brought them across the North Sea from England to Holland; they took trips up the Rhine and the Danube and were ferried to the Isle of Capri.

While at Interlachen, Switzerland, the pair spent a pleasant evening with the honeymooning Charles Classens who knew they were coming and waited. Marion Classens is the daughter of former Beverly Road residents, Mr. and Mrs. William K. Gunn.

After going through customs in New York City, Mrs. Dorought and Mary were met by Mr. Dorought and the three of them took in the Fair before returning home.

Mary will enter Michigan State University this fall as a junior, having transferred from the Cazenovia College for Women at Cazenovia, N.Y.

TWO OF THE new faces at Groves High School this semester belong to Robert Kelly and Joachim Turoff and they are special because they are exchange students and ambassadors of good will from Scotland and Germany.

Crossing the Atlantic on the Seven Seas with 360 other exchange students brought over by the American Field Service, the boys docked in New York and took a bus to Detroit where they were met by their hosts at 9 a.m. Rob, a native of Edinburgh, is staying with Mr. and Mrs. P. M. Green of Mayfair Lane, whose son Steve is also a senior at Groves. Interested in journalism as a career, he was one of the editors of the ship's newspaper during the 10-day crossing and has already been accepted by the University of Edinburgh.

He was placed with the Greens in May and corresponded with them before his arrival, though not all of the students are as fortunate in having that much advance notice.

Rob played bass guitar in a group at home, was on a rugby team, and both here and in Scotland, wears kilts on special occasions.

JOACHIM, from Vlotho, Germany, is with the Karl Scharff family of Old Coach Road and with Robert Scharff is also in his senior year.

A medical doctor's son, Joachim enjoys swimming, both snow and water skiing, and all music from jazz to the classics.

After graduation, he plans to study language and is taking Spanish this year at Groves.

Both he and Rob share interest in dramatics and journalism and both will work on the school paper, The Scripser, this year.

The Scharffs have taken him to see Greenfield Village, the Ford Plant, the Institute of Arts and to Tiger Stadium for a baseball game.

All spent last Friday evening with the Joseph Ohsaver family of Franklin who have Rekha Mehra of Calcutta, India, with them this year, who will also be attending Groves.

BACK IN the area after an absence of five years are the Charles B. Whites who relocated on Mayfair Lane in mid-August. The family, including Betty who is a sophomore at Albion and an Alpha Chi, and Bryan, a ninth grader at Groves, spent part of the summer in Colorado.

Forty hungry guests weren't disappointed last Saturday evening because there was plenty to go around at the eighth annual corn roast hosted by Jack and Lorna Clemens of Auburn Drive.

The group, mostly friends and neighbors from the area, also enjoyed charades and dancing on the patio.

DR. AND MRS. William Marshall, residents of Riverside Drive since March, have returned from their summer home at Sutton's Bay with their four daughters, Dee, twins Linda and Cindy, and Amy.

Among their week-end guests were Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth N. Ryden, also of Riverside Drive.

Dr. and Mrs. William L. Mullan of Georgina Road spent one week at Wallon Lake with the children and Mr. and Mrs. William Mullan, Sr., of Glenview, Pa. Fishing, swimming and golfing occupied their days and bridge was played during the evenings.

Mr. and Mrs. James Mason moved from Detroit to their new

Fall Meeting Is Planned By Barnard

The Barnard College Club of Detroit will hold its fall meeting at the home of Mrs. Howard Beer of Birmingham at 8 p.m. Friday. Among local alumnae who will be present are Mrs. William Gossett, trustee of Barnard College; Mrs. Darbury P. Schmidt, and Mrs. David Lynn. Also present will be Mrs. John Gregory, president; Mrs. Daniel Boone, vice president; Mrs. Dayton O. Slater, Jr., secretary; Mrs. Harold Sader, treasurer, and Mrs. William Brashers, Jr., corresponding secretary.

Welcoming new members Mrs. Richard Barrett of Pine Lake and Mrs. Robert Oliver of Southfield will be Mrs. E. C. Hartshorn, Birmingham, and Mrs. Carl Bross of Bloomfield Hills.

MRS. BOONE, chairman of the committee for the 75th anniversary of the founding of Barnard College will complete plans for the celebration. The Detroit Institute of Arts is joining with Barnard in this celebration by presenting Dr. Julius Held, professor of Art at Barnard and renowned authority on Flemish art, in a lecture entitled "The Sources of Ruben's Art" Friday evening, Oct. 2, 1964 at the Institute.

Students entering Barnard as freshmen this September are Mrs. Hewlett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas H. Hewlett of Birmingham, and two of her classmates from Kingswood: Mary Jane Bartwell of Detroit and Pamela Hill of Grand Rapids.

Junior Friendly League will hold its first meeting of the season Wednesday, Sept. 16, in the home of Mrs. Edwin Northway, 7500 Cornwall Ct., Birmingham. Co-hostesses will be Mrs. Thomas Poe and Mrs. Kenneth Hanan, also of Birmingham.

The group will welcome new members and plan activities for the year, one of which to include a benefit performance of "No Time for Sergeants" at the Birmingham Village Players Oct. 16. Mrs. Poe is taking reservations.

home on Chelton Drive last month, bringing with them six little ones, including brand-new baby Kevin. The Masons are swimmers and golfers and also enjoy an occasional hand of bridge.

FORMER residents of Auburn Drive, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Monahan, had an outdoor steak roast and invited Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Reynolds, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Clemens, the Colvin Pearls, Jim and Dorothy Kelly, Marilyn and Don McConkie, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Palms, Mrs. Carl Blauman, Sr., and Mrs. Ralph Moore to their Oakhills Drive home in Birmingham.

Since the women are members of Mrs. Monahan's Beverly Hills bridge group and the men also enjoy the game, bridge was played after dinner.

Neil Michies Give Western Party

Mr. and Mrs. Neil Michie of Castle Drive, Bloomfield Township, were hosts Saturday at a Reno Party.

Order of the day—festivities started at 5 p.m. in the pool—combined western garb with play money, marked decks, loaded dice and a covered-wagon supper for 24 guests.
