It's Time To Collect For FEDC

Many volunteers who work with the children at Pontiac State Hospital will gather for coffee Monday morning at the home of Mrs. Dale O. Miller, Jr., 1015 Snodgrass Circle, Birmingham.

Mrs. Miller, ways and means chairman for the Foundation for Emotionally Disturbed Children at Pontiac State Hospital, will distribute gift wrapping paper to volunteers wishing to buy and/or sell these items for the FEDC.

Each year the Foundation awards scholarships to Pontiac State Hospital staff members to further their education in the field of the emotionally disturbed and mentally ill.

THE INDUSTRIAL Arts program for teen-agers was launched last year and has been financed and supported by the FEDC.

Right now members of the FEDC are setting their sights on the new children's unit to be built at the hospital. The building will not be ready for at least two years.

St. Bede's to Give Benefit Luncheon

Members of St. Bede's Sanctuary Society will sponsor a luncheon and fashion show Sept. 24 at Plum Hollow Country Club. Proceeds will help furnish the new school addition.

Mrs. William Wolter is chairman of the event, which starts at 12:30 p.m. and will include a fashion show given by the Jacqueline Shops.

but members of the FEDC who have worked and hoped for this are about to see a hope become a reality.

Many people from the Birmingham-Bloomfield area will be guests for the occasion. Some of those attending will be Mrs. T. L. Homewood, this year's FEDC volunteer chairman; Mrs. Louis J. Colombo, Jr., president of FEDC; Mrs. Mayford Roark, Mrs. Robert Taylor, Mrs. Granville Ryan, Mrs. William Decker, Mrs. Thomas Dudson, Mrs. Donald Tracy, Mrs. Morton Neff, Mrs. Reed Alexander, Mrs. Robert Weir, Mrs. Max Brader, Mrs. Robert Harrington and Mrs. Hugh Martin, Jr.

Smith Pool Busy Place During Summer Months

By ELIZABETH YATES
MI 6-1682

It has been a busy summer of parties at poolside for the Edward Smiths of Charnwood Drive. Among their parties was a Sunday breakfast introducing a college friend, Mrs. LaRue Belcher of Denver, Colo., to area neighbors and friends.

Another pool party was a potluck picnic honoring Mrs. Smith's house guests, Mrs. Lelia K. Wright and daughter, Gretchen, of MacMurray College in Jacksonville, O. Twenty Detroit area friends of the college alumnae attended the gathering.

MR. SMITH had his turn at entertaining when he hosted cocktails and a buffet supper for a stag group of 75. An oversized tent was erected beside the patio for the occasion.

Recently, the Smiths entertained at a Mexican party, inviting 10 couples. The colorful theme was carried out with green flood lights accenting large candles.

tus plants, decorative pineapples and Mexican hats.

A full course Mexican buffet dinner highlighted the evening. The guests, given sombreroes to wear throughout the party, were the Helen Cooke and the John LaRue of Lathrup Village; the James Lodges of Detroit; the Lyle Smiths of Huntington Woods; the Jack Smiths, the John Vogts and the Austin Sansones of Birmingham; the Ward Stoddards; and the N. O. Wynkoops of Bloomfield Hills.

MRS. SAM Scituro of Umay Lane and her sister, Mrs. John H. Foley of Detroit, cohosted a buffet supper honoring their mother, Mrs. Al Livingston of Detroit, on her birthday recently.

The party took place at poolside with music for dining and dancing by son-in-law John Foley and guests, Eddie Schick and Marty Mitchell of Detroit.

Guests joining in the happy occasion were Mr. Al Livingston; grandchildren, Steve and Lita Scituro; Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Ward of Flat Rock; Mr. and Mrs. Hector Mac Neil of Harper Woods, Mr. and Mrs. Loyal Fox and daughter, Jackie, of Dearborn; Mr. and Mrs. John Hannon and son, John; Mrs. Melba Noss, and Mrs. Eddie Shick of Detroit.

THE FRANCIS Shaws of Meadowlane Drive recently entertained at a dinner party. Among their guests were the Stanley Vallenders of Haddington Road and the Vallenders' house guests, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Haase of LaCrosse, Wis., Mrs. Jennie Nutter of Birmingham, the Leroy Charlicks of Dearborn, the Frank Manns of Grosse Pointe Woods and the Hugh Moltzeaus of Grosse Pointe Park.

CARLENE Schmidt, daughter of the Bernard Schmidts of Orchard Hill Drive, will be returning this month to Central Michigan College at Mt. Pleasant for her sophomore year.

CLYDE SLADE and sons, Jerry, Edward and Russell, of Kentmoor Drive invited neighbors, Arthur Erickson and son, Randy, to join them at their cabin for a rugged week in the wilds of Canada.

The group flew to White River and then hiked on to their destination. A group of 18 fathers and sons joined them for the week of boating and fishing.

MRS. DONALD Richardson of Pine Hill Drive flew to San Francisco for a three-week visit with her mother, Mrs. Shirley Walker, recently.

Son Pat, according to plan, traveled soon after by bus to California, unknown to his grandmother. After a few days Mrs. Richardson informed her mother a friend would be coming to lunch on that day.

Mrs. Walker received the surprise of her life when she opened the door and found Pat was the guest. During their stay they made a tour of San Francisco which included China Town and Trader Vic's.

Donna Richardson has spent a busy summer as a Romney Girl. She is among a group of nine area girls appearing at functions with the governor. The inaugural ball will be the grand finale for the group.

THE DAVID Lewis family of Patch Drive chose Osceola as their vacation playground for two weeks this summer. Enjoying cottage living with them were sons Steve, Mark and Randy.

THE RUSSELL Fishers of Burnley Drive announced the birth of a son, William, on Aug. 24. They have four other children, Carolyn, Rusty, Peter and Lori.

THE CHARLES Allamons of Masefield Drive are newcomers, moving from Worthington, O., recently. They have two sons, John, 11, who will attend Eastover School and Charles, Jr., who was married in June and living in Columbus, O. Allamon is general manager of the grocery division of Kresge Co.

The family has just returned from a week of fishing and boating at a cottage on Rice Lake near Toronto, Can.

CHILDREN OF the Bruce Butlers of Satterlee Drive have gold and silver medals to show for their summer of swimming.

Debby received two gold medals and one silver and brother Mark was awarded one gold and one silver medal. All were won at the Northwest Suburban Swim League at Groves High School near the end of August.

DAVE LONG, son of the David Longs of Avonhurst Drive, has returned home from two weeks at Camp Oheyesa.

Arriving a day ahead of Dave from San Antonio, Tex., for a visit with the family was a great aunt, Mrs. Marjorie Sea. The Longs took their guest to their cottage in the Irish Hills during her stay.

Spending the long Labor Day week end with the Longs were grandparents Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Keeney of Westerville, O.
