BERLIN, GERMANY—In ceremonies here recently, Major General John F. Franklin, Jr., assumed command of United States Army Berlin and became the 11th U.S. Commandant in this communist-surrounded city. Grey, overcast skies and the threat of rain did not dim the impressive military parade that officially welcomed Gen. Franklin to Berlin and bade farewell to his predecessor, Maj. Gen. James H. Polk.

Over 2,000 troops or about a third of the U.S. Berlin Garrison were lined up on a wide street near a U.S. Army barracks in the South of Berlin as Gen. Franklin arrived on the scene accompanied by Gen. Polk.

GEN. FRANKLIN received the colors of U.S. Army Berlin from Gen. Polk in the traditional Army ceremony signifying the passage of command from one officer on the state of the property of the same of the responsibilities that have been placed upon each American here, be he a military or a political representative.
