Double Ring Ceremony Unites Pair

A double ring ceremony Saturday joined in marriage Beverly Cecil Radke of Hills Drive, Birmingham and Steven Thomas Blaze, son of Mr. and Mrs. Steven A. Blaze, of Detroit. The 12:30 p.m. ceremony was performed at Saint Raymond Church.

Beverly, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Wallace Radke, wore an A-line gown accented with rosepoint lace on the bodice and scallops at the squared neckline and elbow length sleeves.

THE SILK-FACED pea ivory detachable train featured rosepoint lace as an inset border. A single large silk pea de soie rose held the bride's ballerina veil of silk illusion tulle.

Butterfly roses in a cascade spray were carried by the bride. Marilyn Blaze, the bridegroom's sister, was the honor attendant and bridesmaids were from Pontiac, Richard Brown.

Following a luncheon at Pine Knob the bride changed to a turquoise and avocado green nubby tweed suit complemented with avocado accessories.

After a honeymoon through the Smoky Mountains, the newlyweds will make their home in the Colonial Manor Apartments on Twelve Mile Road in Warren on Oct. 1.
