

Troth Told

Mr. and Mrs. J. Branch Mosely of Atlanta, Ga., formerly of Broadway Blvd., Birmingham, announce the engagement of their daughter, Suzanne, to Arthur Walter Schaffer, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Schaffer, Sr., of Almont, Mich. The bride-elect attended Ferris State College and is now a stewardess with Delta Airlines. Her fiancé is also a graduate of Ferris where he was a member of Sigma Phi Epsilon. The couple plan an Oct. 3 wedding.

NORTH ADAMS

Michigan State Beckons After Summer in Europe

By ELIZABETH YATES
MI 6-1682

This fall many young people throughout the North Adams area will be departing for the colleges of their choice.

Andrea Stuckel of Stonyridge Road will be saying goodbye to her parents, the Fred Stuckels, and will be taking up her studies on Oct. 1 at Michigan State University.

She and her friend, Joette Petach of Columbus, Neb., have spent a busy summer in Europe with the American Student Information Service. On June 5 they sailed on The Rotterdam arriving in Rotterdam, Holland, a week later.

Their itinerary included Amsterdam, Trieste, Germany, Nantes, France, Luxembourg and Zurich, Switzerland. They arrived in Engadine, Switzerland, on June 20 and began work, as they had earlier requested, at the Grand Hotel Tour House.

The girls worked behind the scenes at the hotel 11 hours a day, a Swiss work custom. They thoroughly enjoyed the work, the people and short trips to San Moritz and Innsbruck.

Three weeks were spent in August touring Italy and France before sailing for home in September.

SPENCE OLSON of Kernway Drive arrived home in August after a three-year hitch in the U.S. Army. He was stationed in Karlsruhe, Germany, this past year. While in Europe he visited the countries of Austria, Switzerland, Italy, France, Holland and Belgium.

Spence will be departing for Michigan State this month to resume his studies at the university.

Eileen Olson will also be packing and departing for Michigan State along with her brother this month. She will be a junior.

JEAN LEONA Vogt, daughter of the John Vogts of Charnwood Drive, has had a full calendar this past month. Parties and wedding showers have honored her and her fiancé, Thomas Waggoner, son of the John Waggoners of Bloomfield Hills, on their approaching marriage Saturday afternoon.

Among the parties were a miscellaneous shower and luncheon cohosted by Mrs. Edward Smith and Mrs. Thomas Lake of Charnwood Drive. An afternoon bathroom shower-luncheon was given the bride-elect by Mrs. F. Van Looy and Mrs. S. Gasnier of Detroit.

Mrs. William Marshall of Bloomfield Hills entertained at a luncheon and kitchen shower Thursday. A linen and kitchen evening shower was hosted in Flint by Mrs. Leona Phillips, Mrs. Henry Yurk and Mrs. Fred Richardson.

The 5 p.m. wedding will be at the First Presbyterian Church in Birmingham. Miss Vogt has chosen Pam Waggoner of Bloomfield Hills as her maid of honor and Elaine Weber and Kathy Richardson of Flint as her bridesmaids.

ST. THOMAS More Catholic Church is organizing three separate bridge leagues for persons in the North Adams area.

The groups will meet monthly and will consist of one afternoon group, one evening group and an evening couples group. Details will be completed by the end of September with bridge beginning in October and finishing in May. Mrs. Robert Clark of Kentwood Drive and Mrs. Bruce Butler of Satterlee Drive are chairman and co-chairman of the event.

A BOARD meeting of the Osage branch of the WNFGA was held at the Bloomfield Hills home of Mrs. Warren Wood. Ideas were exchanged and plans formulated to make this an exciting year for members.

The new president, Mrs. Fred Trickey, presided at the meeting. Board members included first vice president, Mrs. Norman McClure; second vice president, Mrs. Fred Pantlison; treasurer, Mrs. William Niemhuis; recording secretary, Mrs. Lawrence Hoffert; and corresponding secretary, Mrs. Charles Hosson.

Osage held its first meeting Sept. 14 at the Birmingham home of Mrs. Elmer Kestly. The guest speaker was Sam Bridges, head of greenhouse therapy at Pontiac State Hospital. His topic was "Greenhouse Therapy" and slides were shown of the greenhouse and the work being done there.

Last year $20 was contributed to this program by the Osage branch. Members Mrs. E. A. Linder, Mrs. N. D. Reese, Mrs. Norman McClure and Mrs. A. C. MacKintosh participate Tuesday mornings at the hospital in the therapy program.

Mrs. Joseph Dworski, flower show chairman, announced plans were being made for a series of workshops for the members to be held at the Birmingham Community House. The first workshop will be Nov. 18 from 9:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m.

It will be conducted by Mrs. Norman McClure and the subject will be "The Art of Making Corsets."

MRS. ARTHUR Olson of Kernway Drive, program chairman of the Kern Lake Garden Club, invited the new board members for a get-acquainted luncheon last Wednesday afternoon. Following the luncheon was a meeting to (See NORTH ADAMS, 8-C)

Mrs. J. S. Garrett

Make Home in Far West

Marilyn Kay Siebert and Dr. Jerry S. Garrett were married at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John H. Siebert on Crosswick Rd., Birmingham, Saturday, September 5.

Dr. Garrett is the son of Mrs. Melvin Goldberg of Detroit. For the 8 p.m. service the bride wore an ivory satin street length gown embroidered with Alencon lace at the midriff and scalloped at the hem.

HER SHOULDER length veil was held by a flowered head piece of ivory satin and matching Alencon lace. Orchids, stephanotis and ivy composed her bouquet.

The bride's sister, Barbara Ann, wore a street length aqua empire line crepe dress which featured a panel in the back. Her flowers were baby yellow rose buds.

DR. NEIL Garrett attended his brother as best man. Following a reception in the yard of the home the new Mrs. Garrett changed to a pink and red knit suit for her honeymoon to Las Vegas and California where they will make their home in North Hollywood.
