

Neighborhood Notes From Peggy

By MRS. J. F. HAMILTON
MI 6-2532

When all those new shoes danced through the newly polished halls to classes at Terry School Thursday there were some new faces among the teachers, primed and waiting for them.

Eleanor Patrick, fifth grade teacher, replaces Mrs. Lelia Hudson, who retired in June. Miss Patrick taught at Beverly School, Birmingham, last year.

Barbara McConnell is taking Mary Buick's place as third grade teacher while Miss Buick is on sabbatical leave.

Sally Reynolds, who formerly taught at Pembroke and Greenfield schools, is teaching first grade.

Taking over Linda Zacharias' kindergarten room is Patricia Sharpe, who comes here from La Jolla, Calif. Miss Zacharias moved to Florida and is to be married in December. Mrs. Grace Witter, second grade teacher, underwent surgery recently and is convalescing at her mother's home in Prospect, Pa. Substituting for Mrs. Witter until Oct. 1 is Marcell Fleming.

MR. AND MRS. Robert L. Senglaub and their two youngsters, 1525 Melton, returned from a two-week vacation in Mexico City, Mex., just in time for school to start. President Lopez Mateos gave his "State of the Nation" address while they were there and the Senglaubs found themselves caught up in the excitement of a gigantic parade and were snowed under by tons of confetti showered on the streets to celebrate the occasion.

Mr. and Mrs. John Maslany and family departed for a vacation in northern Michigan the week before school started. Spending most of the time sightseeing, they visited Tahquamenon Falls, Sault Ste. Marie, Mackinaw City, Indian River and the game haven at Wolterine.

A daughter, Kelly Ann, was born to Mr. and Mrs. Merlin F. Perron, 1850 Cole, in St. Joseph Mercy Hospital, Pontiac, Sept. 6. She weighed six pounds, 13 ounces. Mrs. Perron is the former Patricia Ronson. Kelly Ann has three brothers and two sisters—Deborah, Steve, James, Terrie Sue and Randy—ranging in age from six to fourteen years.

TAKING ADVANTAGE of the long Labor Day weekend, Mr. and Mrs. Bruce M. Sanderson and Bruce, Jr., 1553 E. Lincoln, drove to Stevens Point, Wis., to visit Mrs. Sanderson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William C. Hansen. Camping along the way, they followed the Lake Michigan shore line en route.

New residents at 1713 Mansfield are Mr. and Mrs. Robert J. Mitchell. Mrs. Mitchell is a native of Detroit and a graduate of Mercy College, Detroit. Mr. Mitchell attended University of Detroit and is in the purchasing department at Fisher Body. They have four children: Peggy, 5; Mark, 3; Mary Pat, 2, and Matthew, 6 months.

Newcomers Club Plans Luncheon

Birmingham Newcomers Club will have its first luncheon of the season Sept. 24 at 12:30 at the Community House. Larry Sommerfeld, veteran traveler from the AAA, will narrate a color film on "Michigan's Upper Peninsula," and will answer questions on what to see and do in Michigan.

Mr. Sommerfeld has worked at improving vacations for Michiganders for more than twenty years. He has covered most of North America in search of subjects for his films. He makes over 200 personal appearances each year, visiting clubs and civic organizations throughout Michigan. His productions are original Kodachrome movies.

Anyone living in Birmingham less than two years may join the Newcomers group at a monthly luncheon.

For information and reservations call Mrs. E. P. Delliver, Jr.

The Birmingham Eccentric

BIRMINGHAM, MICHIGAN
Thursday, September 17, 1964

Robert Louis Stevenson left marking many uplifting and inspirational words. Here are a few: "The best things are nearest breath in your nostrils, like in your eyes, duties at your hand, the Path of God before you. Then do not grasp at the stars, but do life's common work, certain that daily duties and daily bread are the sweetest things in life". These words came from a man who was acquainted with trials and great pain. (GRA)
