Mr. Michie portrayed Gus the Bartender while Mrs. Michie could have been "Miss Kitty" from Gun-

the most wonderful time even though it was a compact, eight days.

Two very proud and happy people these days are Mr. and Mrs. James McClune of S. Williamsbury who became the parents of ittle "Miss Amy." She was born at Providence Hospital on Aug. 28 and weighed in at 6 pounds, 13 ounces. was Mrs. Michie's mother, Mrs. Bernard Schabot of Bloomfield Hills who was a perfect Annie Oakley. To top it off a password was needed to gain entry to the establishment. Those who attended claim it was "the very best party."

THE WOMEN taking part in "Operations Friendship" from the Meadow Lake area finalized their plans at a luncheon held on Sept. 15 at the home of Mrs. George McCarthy on Mark Court. Attending were Mrs. Thomas La Veck, Mrs. James Stells, Mrs. Broadwell. Others were Mrs. Kenneth Anderson. Mrs. Alvin Wagstaff and Mrs. Vincent Johnson, These women and their husbands will be "host families" at annual parties held for foreign students.

HOUSE GUESTS at the Kenneth Bequette home on Pickering for the Labor Day week end were Mr. and Mrs. Fred Oppman, former neighbors who now reside in Chicago.

Mrs. Glem Northeap and her son Duffy have returned to their home on S. Cranbrook Cross Road after spending three weeks in the Traverse Bay area.

They brought back with them a young man ramed David Lee who young man ramed David Lee who ing to school at Seaholm. David is quite an accomplished musician, his specialty being the guitar.
