PARTICULAR praise was voiced for the school secretary. Miss Bernic Chappellie.

"If everyone who changed jobs were assured of finding a secretary like Miss Bernie acceptable waiting in their new office, the business people would be chanoming to be transferred."

Prior to Mrs. Green's five-year tenure in Greenwich, she taught at the Falk School, a lab school at the University of Pittsburgh's Soffax School, which, under Dr. Hedwig Pregler, pioneered one of the first programs for gifted children.
