Breakfast Precedes Rites For the Daniel Gleesons

Helen Joanne McCrumb and Daniel Joseph Gleeson were joined in marriage Saturday at 11 a.m. at St. Columban Church, Birmingham.

Preceding the ceremony, breakfast was served at Sylvan Glen Inn in Rochester.

The bride, given in marriage by her brother, Ronald W., and daughter of Mrs. Ralph W. McCrumb, 1585 Holland, Birmingham and the late Mr. McCrumb, wore Chantilly lace over peau de soie.

A pillow of peau de soie embroidered with seed pearls held her veil. Variegated ivy, stephanotis and white cymbidium orchids formed her bouquet.

Mr. Gleeson is the son of Mrs. Harry R. Gleeson of Royal Oak.

MRS. HARRY T. Gleeson of Livonia, as matron of honor, wore cotton blue organza over tulle.

MRS. D. J. GLEESON

with a net hat and matching bow. Her flowers were pom poms and Fuji mums.

Wearing identical gowns were bridesmaids Mrs. Rocky Floccari of Royal Oak; Mrs. Keith Curtis of Pontiac and Barbara Grooms of Birmingham. The attendants wore hats with matching bows and carried pom poms and mums.

Harry Gleeson was the best man and ushers were John Gleeson of Madison Heights and Michael Gleeson and Gearold Gleeson of Royal Oak.

Maureen Gleeson, daughter of the Harry Gleesons, was the flower girl.

A reception was held that evening at the Royal Oak Elk's Club. The newlyweds are honeymooning in the East and will reside in Royal Oak.
